

Custom Hubbell Dual Blade Labrys Axe w/ Carved Stag Handle & Leather Sheath

Description: This item is a double edged axe. The metal portion between the blades is marked with an animal that appears to be a dog over "HUBBELL". The opposite side is marked "NE - CEDE - MAILIS - SED - CONTRA", which translates from Latin, "Do not give into evil, but proceed ever more boldly against it". This ax has what appears to be a stag handle with a carved design. It appears to depict a bear cub attacking a man on a horse. There is also what appears to be another horse with a man on it, but it is upside down. There is a mountain range in the background.

Dimensions: This item measures about 14 3/4 inches tall. The blades along with the middle piece measure about 8 1/2 inches long. Each blade measures about 3 inches long.
