Carl Hubbell (left) and brother John Hubbell - Carl Owen Hubbell (June 22, 1903 November 21, 1988) was an American baseball player. He was a member of the New York Giants in the National League from 1928 to 1943, and remained on the Giants' payroll for the rest of his life, long after their move to San Francisco. Photo is dated 03/02/37

JOHN HUBBEL, 27-YEAR- OLD ROOKIE PITCHER OF THE NEW YORK GIANTS, AND BROTHER OF VETERAN CARL HUBBELL

An All-Assession Board is being represent by the coursel due consequent J. Hansa Wagner, with one member from each of the 16 major larger claim represented to added the All-American Seri-Per town. Each of the 708 All State and the 16 All-American players will be awarded continuous signed by Wagner and a recommendative from each of the 16 major league tomer.

HOW TEAMS ENTER Sender town death a to trice position of the Nicholal Sender Sender Company, and the Nicholal Sender Sender Sender States Town the maintain to be the Manager, of these of Sender Send

- Official State Championship to be decided Official National Championship to be decided
- · Hanns Wagner Official State Trephy to
- @ State Chorpies to Receive 20 per cast ro-
- · faur ethar clabs where in cash databution Official Contificates to All-State Players
- @ Every tears listed in 1938 Semi-Pro Guido

NATIONAL

- @ State Changion oligible in National Toursey @ Horses Wegner Official National Traphy to winner.
- 8 Every Toom to receive a milesee ellowence @ Every Team to receive a mileogo allemenco . Tex loading teams to share in prise money
 - 8 Crah hones reid for cover that ere you @ Winning team guaranteed $5,000 cash price
 - @ Sixteen trophies to be denoted to teams @ All-America players awarded Official Cartifi-

JOHN HUBBELL As a Semi-Pro

National Semi-Pro Baseball Congress

RAYMOND DUMONT, President

Here Is What

the Press

BOX 2202

WICHITA, KAN.