Accidental Drowning of Wake Hubbell.

Wake Hubbell, of Wenton Place, Ohio, a travelling salesman well known to many Soo people, and the owner of considerable property in this city, was drowned Dec. 28th, near Vienna, Ala., while crossing the Tombigbee river. Mr. Hubbell had been travelling in the South for the firm of Robert Howe, Cincinnati, O., and was on his way from Mobile to Vienna with horses and buggy, accompanied by a negro driver. An attempt was made to ford the river, which was swollen by heavy rains, and the horses, buggy and contents were swept down the stream by the current and Mr. Hubbell met his death. The negro escaped. Mr. Hubbell's untimely demise is deeply regretted by many here.
