

Clay County MO Archives News.....Deaths in Newspaper 1874

*****

Copyright. All rights reserved.

<http://www.usgwarchives.net/copyright.htm>

<http://www.usgwarchives.net/mo/mofiles.htm>

*****

File contributed for use in USGenWeb Archives by:

Ronald J. Reid rreid21@cox.net October 21, 2007, 10:33 am

The Liberty Tribune 1874

DEATHS IN THE LIBERTY TRIBUNE, CLAY COUNTY, MISSOURI

The following death notices appeared in The Liberty Tribune, Liberty, Clay County, Missouri during the year of 1874. Some the deaths did not occur in Clay County. The date of publication is shown prior to the listed item(s).

Obituary.

Death of An Estimable Lady.

In Columbia, Missouri, on Monday, Jan. 26th, 1874, of tumor of the stomach, after a long and painful illness, Mrs. Elizabeth E. Hubbell, wife of Capt. W.P. Hubbell (its actually William David-ME# 1015) of Columbia, aged 68 years.

Mrs. Hubbell was born in Franklin county, Kentucky, on Nov. 24th, 1806. She was the daughter of John and Susan Gano Price. She was married on Sept. 17, 1822, and with her husband united with the Buckrun Baptist church in March 1824. Her husband and herself removed to Missouri in 1839 and settled first in Howard county. Two years thereafter they removed to Liberty, Mo., and assisted in the organization of the Baptis church of that place.

Mrs. Hubbell raised eight children. Of these John P. and C.G. Hubbell of this place are her oldest and youngest, W.P. and R.M. Hubbell reside in Richmond, Mo.; Mrs. MacFarland in Colorado, Mrs. Gano in Chicago, Mrs. Darneale in San Francisco, and her third son, F.L. Hubbell died in 1864 from wounds received in the rear of Vicksburg during the war - he being a member of the Third Missouri Confederate Infantry.

Mrs. Hubbell was a woman eminent for her exemplary walk, pure character and fervent piety. - Columbia Herald.