

The following is our weekly report of failures, assignments, &c.:

Norman Fowler, East Bethel, Vt.; failed.

Lorenzo Bemis, Spencer, Mass.; failed some time since; now advertised an insolvent; liabilities stated to be $25,000, and assets $8,000.

John E. Weeden, Westerly, R. I.; failed.

James Malley, Hartford, Conn.; failed—small dividend expected.

John M. Sands, New-York City; assigned to William E. Michaels.

Brewer & Mead, Peekskill, N. Y.; suspended.

William Kelsey, Syracuse, N. Y.; assigned.

L. C. Whiting, Bath, N. Y.; assigned to W. H. Bull and A. J. Ferris.

Van Nuise & Stout, New-Brunswick, N. J.; suspended, assets $4,000; liabilities $32,000, of which about $20,000 is confidential.

Johnson, Halloway & Cowdon, Philadelphia, Penn.; suspended.

Levi Burd, Mainsville, Penn.; failed.

Hubble & Sons, Wheeling, Va.; sold out by the Sheriff.

Gray & Co., Louisville, Ky., bankers; have been compelled to suspend.

J. H. Pritchett, Clarksville, Tenn.; assigned.

W. E. Newell & Co., Clarksville, Tenn.; assigned.

E. A. Sprague, Woodstock, Ohio; failed.

Paul E. Rust, Neville, Ohio; assigned.

Frey & Walker, Louisville, Ohio; suspended, liabilities about $10,000.

G & J. A. Vrooman & Co., Metamora, Ohio; failed.

W. K. Stow, Chicago, Ill.; failed.

Henry I. Turner, Sank City, Wis.; suspended.

Boyle & Tillman
Elwell; assets about
F. S. Richardson.

12/5/1856-New York Tribune