Not long since the Indians attacked the El Paso stage, at a point between Eagle Springs and Van Horn Wells. Judge Hubble was the only passenger. He and the driver were killed and their bodies have been found near the road. The stage and the horses have not been recovered. It is also stated that during a special session of the district court in Uvalde county, the Indians entered the county, killed a young man, son of Mr. Wm. Cox, who lives four miles from Uvalde, stole horses and committed other depredations. In consequence of this raid the court adjourned to give the jurymen a chance to look after the redskins.—[Weatherford Times, Feb. 24.]

The Waco Register has a letter from Marlin, February 23, giving account of a brutal murder in Falls county:
