

ANXIOUS TO MARRY.—The Marion Star speaks of an elopement extraordinary of a Mr. and Miss Hubble, who passed through that place Wednesday on their way to the Southwestern Gretna Green. We should judge that the eloping couple was quite a courageous one, as they rode from home after night, passing over a mountain during a heavy snow storm, and both riding the same horse. The couple are first cousins, and aged respectively fifteen and eighteen years. It is astonishing what a woman will go through to get married.

The same paper describes the novel wedding of Mr. William Cox and Miss Mary Bucha place last w

1/4/1871-Richmond, VA