LONG ISLAND CITY.—Charges of blackmail preferred against Police Sergeant McManus are under the Police Commissioners' investigation.... Mayor De Bevoise informed the Common Council by message, on Tuesday evening, of the attempts now making to repeal the County Court-house bill, and advised action in opposition. A committee were appointed to go to Albany for that purpose.... The Queens County Court-house Commissioners will meet at Hunter's Point to-morrow to receive and decide upon the new plans for the county buildings.

NORTH HEMPSTEAD.—The Queens County Court of Sessions completed its February Term, yesterday. The Grand Jury found indictments against Michael Link and Carl Bergman, for maintaining nuisances. Link was tried on a previous indictment for the same offense, convicted, and sentenced to pay a fine of $200, and placed under $500 bonds to appear for trial on the indictment found at this term. Bergman was placed under $1,000 bonds. Mary Sharkey was sentenced to one year and three months imprisonment in the State Prison. The District-Attorney moved the trial of Justus Cooke, Richard Stilwell, Eugene Hubble, and William Reis, indicted for assault with intent to kill William Stringer, keeper of Queens County Jail. The counsel for the prisoners denied the jurisdiction of the Court, the parties being already under sentence for other offenses. Judge Reid decided that the point was well taken, and the prisoners were remanded to await the expiration of their imprisonment before trial for this offense. The Grand Jury unanimously decided against indicting Constable John Allen for shooting Patrick McCormack, who had attempted to prevent the officer from making an arrest.

NEWTOWNS.—The Maspeth Improvement Association has applied to the Board of Town Officers for the opening of the proposed road extending Grand-st., Brooklyn, E. D., to Newtown Village.

JAMAICA.—The Board of Supervisors will meet here to-day to audit the bills of the Newtown constables.
