

In 1864 Mr. W. H. Hubble discovered on the Stillwater river, about ninety miles east of Bozeman, one of the most extensive silver leads that has ever been found in the West. It is favorably located for working, is three hundred feet wide, and the rock has every appearance of being valuable.

Washington.

From the Kalma Beacon.

The Deer
ent is surpris

10/15/1873-Bismark,ND