

THE DIVORCE MILL RUNS MERRILY.

The case of Susie Woods vs. Frederick Woods, in which the lady makes a petition for a divorce, was called up today, but Frederick failing to appear, E. H. Woolley was appointed by the court to investigate the charges made and see if they were true.

When the case of Augusta Stockman vs. William, her hubby, was called the lady came forward smiling and stated that she and "Will" had made up and she had decided to ask for a dismissal of the case. "Will" grinningly corroborated the statements and made arrangements to pay all bills incurred by the presentation of the petition.

When George W. Hubble was called up to give his reasons for a divorce he grinned even more widely than Mr. Stockman and informed the judge that his wife had stolen a march on him and procured a divorce in Iowa. There was therefore no reason for his continuing the suit.

In the case in which Mrs. Minnie A. Duling asks for a legal separation, her husband, Edward Duling, informed the court that he had a few things to say and gave him five days.
