

Died of Blood Poisoning.

JEFFERSONVILLE, Ind., Jan. 12. — Frank H. Hubble, general freight agent of the Newport News and Mississippi Valley railroad, with headquarters at Louisville, died at his home in this city at noon yesterday of blood poisoning. He was ill four days and was aged sixty. Mr. Hubble for several years was connected with the freight department of the Jeffersonville, Madisonville and Indianapolis railroad.

CYRUS FIELD

NEW YORK,

1/12/1892-Maysville, KY

Field Lindley, eldest daughter of Cyrus