

AT THE THEATERS.

The Dorothy Morton Opera company will present "The Beggar Student" at the Metropolitan opera house tonight, with Mr. Hubert Wilke in the title role. Mr. Wilke has entirely recovered from the attack of bronchitis which compelled him to retire temporarily from the cast, and he will positively appear in the leading role of "The Beggar Student" tonight. Following is the cast:

Laura.....Miss Dorothy Morton
Bronislava.....Miss Rita Harrington

Daughters of the Countess Palmatica.

Countess Palmatica....Miss Sylvester Cornish
General Ollendorff, Governor of Krakow—

Mr. George Callahan

Janitzky, a Polish noble..Mr. Edward Webb

Entrich, a jailer.....Mr. Ben Lodge

Puffke, his assistant.....Mr. H. D. Johns

Lieut. Poppenberg.....Miss Fannie Frankel

Capt. Hewric!.....Mr. Phin Nares

Capt. Richtofen.....Mr. Frank Fox

Major Holzdorff.....Mr. Will Brown

Boguiniel.....Mr. G. Bee Jackson

Eva, his wife.....Miss Josephine Baird

Cousins of Countess Palmatica.

Sitzka, an inn keeper.....Mr. T. B. Hubble

Onouphrie, a servant.....Mr. G. Lewis

Burgomaster.....Mr. W. Butler

and

Symon Symonovicz, the Beggar Student—

Mr. Hubert Wilke

Polish Peasants, Brass Band, Polish Noblemen and Ladies, Prisoners and Soldiers.

SYNOPSIS.

Act I—Scene 1. Courtyard of Military Prison of Krakow. Scene 2. Spring fair at Krakow.

Act II—Grand Salon in the Palace of Countess Palmatica.

Act III.—Garden of the same.

"The Commodore" with its many patriotic features continue to meet with the positive approval of local theater-goers at the Grand this week.

Fun without coarseness or vulgarity, fun that is pure and wholesome, is what is promised in "Casey's Wife," which comes to the Grand opera house next week, commencing next Sunday night. This new farce comedy is from the pen of Robert J. Donnelly. It bubbles over with the quaint original humor of the New York types it represents. There is nothing better in stage characterization than the Irishman say of Mark Murphy—and it is M

Casey with so much of humor in the play. The company