

With its head caught between the bed on which it had been sleeping and another bed, the 2-year-old child of Mrs. R. W. Hubble, of Mann, strangled to death. The mother, who lives on a farm had left the child asleep on the bed and left it to see about some work on the farm.

2/12/1908-Guthrie, OK