

Reception and Musicale

One of the social events of the week was the large reception and musical given by Mr. and Mrs. Joe Driesbach, jr., at their apartments at 220 North Grand avenue, St. Patrick's night. The decorations were entirely in green. One of the features of the evening was the singing by the Harmony quartet, composed of Prince C. Hubble, Frank Reed, Adolph Leon and Frank Turner. Baby Leona Fleming sang a number of popular songs, for which she received great applause. Those giving selections on the piano were Mrs. Dollie Graham, Mrs. C. C. Fleming, Miss Eve Brown, Miss Bessie Berkovitz, Miss Orella Sams, Sam Driesbach and Joe Driesbach.

Those present were Messrs. and Mesdames Prince Hubble, Wm. Dresser, Edwin Potter, Homer Driesbach, C. C. Fleming, Charles Clayton, Herman Davidson; Mrs. Dollie Graham, Misses Orella Sams, Anna Sherr, Bessie Berkovitz, Eve Brown, Orella Sams, Lena Jennings, Dora Wiley, Zelma Potter,

3/22/1908-Los Angeles