Miss Juliette Emily Hubbell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bulkley Hubbell, was married yesterday afternoon in the Brick Presbyterian Church, to Mason Tyler Adams. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Richards, and afterward there was a reception at the home of the bride's parents, at No. 31 East 49th street. The bride, who was given away by her father, was in an Empire gown of white satin, trimmed with lace. She wore a tulle veil, fastened with orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of lilies-of-the-valley. Her ornaments consisted of a circle of diamonds, Mr. Adams's gift, and a diamond and sapphire pendant from Mrs. Charles Dickinson Adams, mother of the bridegroom. The bride's sisters, Miss Ruth and Miss Margaret L. Hubbell, were the bridesmaids. They wore Empire gowns of pink Liberty satin, pink silk hats, trimmed with pink feathers, and carried Killarney roses. A number of the bride's friends, instead of taking part in the bridal procession, occupied front pews. They were Miss Elizabeth Morgan, Mrs. L. Cass Ledyard, jr., Mrs. Oliver C. Macy, Mrs. James Greenway, Mrs. James Russell, Mrs. Edward C. Williams, Mrs. Franklin Mills, Miss Ruth Sabln, Mrs. Henry Law, Mrs. William Barbour, Miss Marjory Nott, the Misses de Forrest, Miss Jessie Wood, Miss Olive Schley and Mrs. Ransom. William E. S. Griswold was Mr. Adams's best man, and the ushers were Lawrence Slade, Ord Preston, Charles G. Bartlett, Franklin Mills, Charles H. Welles, jr., of Scranton, Penn.; James H. Magee, of Pittsburg; James B. Neale, of Minersville, Penn., and Frederick H. Brooke.
