

LOCAL HISTORY

WHAT HAPPENED NOVEMBER 14

- 1869—The Mormons who had settled on Cherry creek, Malad valley, Idaho, were organized into the Willow Springs branch of the church, with Richard J. Davis as president.
- 1878—On this and the following day the case of George Reynolds was argued before the supreme court of the United States.
- 1884—Rudger Clawson was brought before the supreme court of Utah on a writ of habeas corpus, and on the following day the decision of the lower court, in refusing him and Joseph H. Evans bail, pending an appeal to the higher courts, was affirmed.
- 1885—Judge Zane, in the Third district court, rendered a decision disbaring Aurelius Miner, and sentenced Andrew Burt to five days' imprisonment and $150 fine for his collision with Deputy Marshal Collin on the 10th instant.
- 1887—In the Third district court, Salt Lake City, Thomas Henderson was sentenced by Judge Zane to six months' imprisonment and $100 fine for unlawful cohabitation.
- 1888—George B. Bailey of Mill Creek, Bishop Joseph S. Tanner of Payson, and Thomas R. Jackson of Nephi were arrested for unlawful cohabitation.
- 1889—In the Third district court, Salt Lake City, the proceedings in which John Moore and other Mormons were refused citizenship, on the ground that they had subscribed to a certain treasonable and secret oath in the Endowment house, was commenced before Judge Thomas J. Anderson. Proceedings were continued day by day until the 25th.
- 1890—J. W. Abbott lost his hands by the explosion of a blast in Ogden canyon.
- 1896—Lodi branch of the church, Bannock stake of Zion, Idaho, was organized, with Hyrum Cunningham as presiding elder.
- 1899—City begins water suit against Lamson companies.
- 1900—P. J. Conway disappears. W. P. O'Meara secures an injunction against the city bond issuer.
- 1901—William Hubble, aged 84, dead at Tintic.
- 1902—H. L. Miller announced as new cashier of Wells, Fargo & Co.'s bank in Salt Lake. Colonel H. B. Maxson, secretary of the National Irrigation congress, in Salt Lake.
- 1903—Mrs. J. S. Garrison finds her son's body in dons d
tion fo