

OFFICIAL LIST OF BOURBON'S HONORED DEAD.

The official record of Bourbon County casualties during the war embracing 18 killed, 1 missing and 1 reported in action and later reported as wounded, has been reported by Mrs. Fanniebelle Sutherland, County Historian, as follows:

James Mahorney, reported as missing.

Charles Adair, Paris, Kentucky, died of disease at Camp Taylor, Ky.

Bishop S. Batterton, Private, Paris, Ky., died of wounds.

John Blythe, Private, Bourbon County, died of disease at Camp Meade, Md.

Charles G. Butler, Private, Paris, Ky., R. D. 8, died of disease at Camp Meade, Md.

James E. Cain, Private, Paris, Ky., killed in action.

Harry Hubble Chinn, R. F. D. 7, Paris, Ky., died of disease at Camp Taylor, Ky.

Clennie Dunnigan, Private, Paris, Ky., died of disease at Salt Lake City, Utah.

Wm. A. Huddleston, Private, 379 Stoner Avenue, Paris, Ky., died of disease at Camp

3/14/1919-Paris, KY

Captain Reuben D. Huddleston, Jr.,