
As Jim Thompson was walking down Main street Sunday night about 9 o'clock he was accosted by George Middleton and Ike Hubble, both colored men and both pretty well filled with whisky. After using filthy epithets towards Mr. Thompson, one of the men knocked him down and was in the act of beating him over the head while he was down, when friends of Mr. Thompson interferred and put a stop to it. They were arrested by Marshal Owens and placed in jail, where they spent the night. At their trial yesterday morning the jury hung and another one impaneled, which resulted likewise and the trial was set for Thursday morning at 10 o'clock, the prisoners being held in $100 bond.

JIM TALL.—We predicted in our last issue that it would only be a short while till our fighting coon, Jim Tall, would again be heard from and he was not long in coming. He and his friends were. On Saturday night he and his

8/13/1889-IJ

THE two negroes, George Middleton and Ike Hubble, who assaulted Jim Thompson on Tuesday night last, were fined at their third trial yesterday, $35 each and costs.

A PROCESSION composed of six baby carriages, each one containing a promising youngster, passed down yesterday. It is very evident ed to disturb her slumbers.

8/16/1889-IJ

THE Marshal arrested Ike Hubble and Henry Robinson, colored, on the charge of stealing $30 from Judge T. L. Shelton, but they proved that they found it and the judge was under the impression that he lost it on the street, so Judge Carson turned them loose. They had spent about $10 of the money.

A BUGGY containing Charley Carson and two lovely young ladies was overturned at the corner of Main and Lancaster streets Saturday afternoon. Although all were thrown to the ground peditions as the one just closed.

1/21/1890-IJ

The police court Saturday fined Pete Huston $5 for disorderly conduct in Carr's bar-room, Ike Hubble $10 for mauling Henry Crow over the head, Warren Atkinson $5 for drunken and disorderly conduct and Henry Robinson $5 for same offense. All coons but Atkinson.

4/22/1890-IJ

Ike Hubble is a thief of monumental gall. He stole a pair of pants from Joe S. Jones' store and in a short time took them back to trade for a pair that would fit him. Mr. Jones suspected at once that they had been stolen, but the negro put on a bold front and declared he bought them from Wallace Withers two weeks before. As the pantaloons were of unusual size, Mr. Jones remembered to have shown them to a long-legged customer that morning and so informed the negro, who finally admitted that he had stolen them. He also confessed when brought into court and was given 30 days in jail. —Starlight Journal.

6/10/1891-Richmond, KY