MIDDLEBURG.

School began at Middleburg Normal College Monday with 50 pupils.

Rev. Joshua Taylor preached at the M. E. church Sunday morning and Rev. Shouse preached that night.

The writer is just in receipt of a letter from Mrs. Etta Coleman, who has been visiting in Kansas for the past five weeks. She is now among the jack rabbits and prairie dogs of Oklahoma, and is having a pleasant time with relatives. We expect her home in a couple of weeks.

Misses Sadie, Florence and Flossie Taylor, of Danville, were with friends here Sunday. Miss Willie Fogle left Sunday for Brush Creek, where she will teach the common school. Miss Bertha Belden, of Crab Orchard, is visiting Miss Martha Estes. Misses Maud and Daisy Lyons, of Dye, were visiting relatives here. Miss Bessie Fogle began school at Turkey Knob Monday. Miss Cordia Hubble, who is teaching school in Lincoln county, was at home Saturday and Sunday. Dr. Isaac Wesley and children were visiting Dr. J. T. Wesley. Miss Elva Rigney left for Brush Creek, where she will teach school.

Elliott-Hubble

A PROMINENT YOUNG COUPLE WED HERE THIS WEEK.

A beautiful little wedding took place at the Methodist parsonage in Stanford Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock. Rev. J. J. Dickey officiating. Mr. William Elliott of Belgrade, Montana won a charming Lincoln County young lady, Miss Cordella Hubble, formerly of Stanford, who became the happy bride.

Mr. and Mrs. Elliott took the afternoon train for Montana, Mr. Elliott's home for the past thirteen years, but a Kentuckian, who always knows where to find a pretty woman. Their many friends wish them joy intermingled with prosperity in their Western home.
