

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Coffey, entertained at their beautiful home Tuesday night in honor of their son Arthur's birthday. After a sumptuous supper, served in most charming manner by the hostess, Mrs. Coffey, the guests were entertained with several piano and cornet duets and solos by Miss Leslie Hubble and Mr. Harry Jacobs. Following that were a number of interesting games and at a late hour the guests departed wishing Mr. Arthur Coffey many happy returns of the day. The following guests were present: Miss Bertha Khoton, of Somerset, Miss Alice Gooch, Anna Hubble, Lena Beck, Ruth Cocking, Eugenia Hubble, Mr. Walter Murphy, G. T. Gooch, Mack Mobley, James Cannon, Herman Gann, Frank Mobley, Harry Carter, Will Beck, Harry Jacobs, Arthur and Willie Coffey.

The Literary Society will meet Saturday night at the regular hour and place.

Miss Eugenia Hubble and George Shelton motored to this city Saturday evening and were married by Rev. D. M. Walker. Miss Hubble is the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Hubble of McKinney, and the groom is a well known business man of Somerset. The wedding was quite a surprise to the friends and relatives, as the bride left home, telling her parents that she was coming to Stanford to visit her friend, Miss Elizabeth Hunn for a few days. They will reside at Somerset.
