

small stack.

—R. F. Campbell has sold to E. H. Hubble, 44 acres of land in the West End, and 25 acres of Knob land for $1,000 subject to the dower of his wife.

—Mose Potter sold 20 head mules to Bud Nicoll, of Woodburn, for $95 per head, and 6 to Dick McEl [unclear] $145 per head.—[Bowling Green

1882/1/10-IJ

Mrs. HELEN CAMPBELL, of Cynthiana, Ind., who has been visiting her son, Mr. John Hubble, for sometime, was a pleasant caller at this office Saturday.

Mr. JOHN GILL, Garrard county's wealthiest citizen, was thought to be dying yesterday. He has been some time with something like consumption.

7/30/1889

---

— Mr. J. P. Hubble tells us that his mother, Mrs. Helen Campbell, who lived at Cynthiana, died some days ago, aged 68. Mr. Hubble was telegraphed for and arrived in time to see her alive. She was a splendid woman and her many friends in this county will regret to learn of her death.

---

J. W. COOK, In charge paint shop. J. W. In charge

2/11/1896-IJ