

THE Annual Concert, given by the Music Class of Stan ord Female College, occurred last night and was attended by an unusually large audience, which showed its appreciation in a manner that must have in a measure repaid those painstaking and competent teachers, Misses Addie Parnell and Georgia Eldridge, for their year of steady effort in behalf of their pupils. That they did their duty fully and well is shown in the almost faultless manner in which the performers rendered the most difficult selections both vocally and instrumentally. Following is the programme:

SCENES FROM THE OPERA.

CONCERT MARCH—3 pianos.....Wallenhaupt

Misses Lucy Tate, Ellen Wearon, Lizzie Farris.

LET US GO WHERE PLEASURE.....Millard

Misses Bertie Shreve, Mattie McAlister, Eliza, Mattie and Maggie Owsley, Bessie Reid, Fannie Bragg, Lizzie Farris, Ellen Wearon.

GIOVANNI.....Meyer

Misses Eliza Owsley, Madie White, Jennie Crane

IL TROYATORE.....Verdi

Misses Fannie Bragg, May Adams, Bertha Rogers, Kate Yeager.

TITANIA—Vocal Solo.....Terry

Miss Mattie McAlister.

FAUST—2 pianos.....Arr. by Mack

Misses Bertie Givens, Louanna Bibb, Laura Hubble, Belle Bourne.

BOHEMIAN GIRL—3 pianos, 1 organ, Arr. by Brunner

Misses Jennie Crane, Maggie and Linda Owsley, Bessie Reid, Belle Bourne, Lou Dunn, Ella Shanks.

PHARISEE AND SADDUCEE—Vocal

Misses Lizzie Farris and Be

THE will of Levi Hubble, which was probated this week, appoints his wife, Mrs. Martha J. Hubble, and his nephew, L. F. Hubble, executors, and they qualified without security, as it directed. The estate is equally divided between his wife and three children, W. G. and Misses Allie P. and Laura Hubble, the shares of the two latter to be held in trust for the present by their mother.

4/11/1890

—Misses Allie and Laura Hubble took the train Friday for Lexington, where they will live in the future, very much to the regret of their Lincoln county friends.—A number of the merchants have adopted the cash and say they are well pleas from a very profitable visit there.

1/24/1893

Mrs. MARY HUBBLE, Misses Allie and Laura Hubble and Lawyer L. F. Hubble were here several days last week settling up the estates of the late Levi Hubble and W. G. Hubble, before Judge Var- non.

Miss GERTRUDE Howland started Sun- day morning to pay a visit to her homefolks at Ghent, but, the wreck at 4/18/1893

—For once the I. J. acknowledges to being ingloriously left on a pleasant piece of news. Ten days ago, Mr. G. S. Shelby, familiarly known as Jock and a son of Col. Isaac Shelby, obtained the consent of Miss Laura Hubble to go with him to Lexington and consummate their hopes by marriage. They went, they married, they returned as happy as a pair of turtle doves to the home Mr. Shelby had prepared for his bride. The groom is a fine young gentleman of good business qualifications, while Miss Laura is a lovely young lady, sure to make him a worthy help meet. May they always be happy in each other's love and after climbing hand and hand the hill of life together, may they rest together at the foot in peace and contentment.

Wisconsin Central

10/9/1894

Through line from Chicago to St. Paul

—The Levi Hubble farm of 330 acres in Lincoln county, was sold at auction Monday and was knocked down to George S. Shelby, at $43.60 per acre. Mr. Shelby is a son-in-law of Mrs. Hubble. B. G. & Monte Fox sold to a Connecticut man their yearling pacer by Nut-hurst for $800. It has gone has gone quarters in 34 seconds. 10/25/1895's sale corn brought $1.25 in the field.—advocate.

MRS. GEORGE S. SHELBY DEAD.

A Christian woman, a model wife and a devoted mother's life came to an end Sunday, when the spirit of Mrs. George S. Shelby returned to the God Who gave it. She had been ill a long time and while her death was not unexpected, the announcement of it brought sorrow to many who knew and loved her. She left a husband and two children, who are now bowed down with grief and who have the unbounded sympathy of a large circle of friends.

Mrs. Shelby was a daughter of the late Levi Hubble for years one of the most prominent farmers and stock raisers of the Shelby City section. Her mother survives her. She was born February 28, 1872. In early life she gave her life to God and had been a consistent member of the church since. Deceased was well known in Stanford, where she had many friends and where she frequently visited in her girlhood days. Her sister, Mrs. T. L. Lillard, who lives in the far west arrived in time to bid her farewell, but her mother, who lives with Mrs. Lillard, was not able to make the trip and was denied the sad privilege of being with her youngest child in her last hours.

W. C. McDonald, a democrat, was inaugurated as New Mexico governor yesterday.

1/19/1912

GEORGE SHELBY DIES IN WEST

Members of Prominent Lincoln Family Shocked by News of Brother's Demise in Oklahoma

A dispatch to his brothers and sisters in this county early in the week told of the sudden death at Drumright, Okla., Monday of George Shelby, a member of the large Shelby family of this section of the state, and a great-great-grandson of Gov. Isaac Shelby, the first governor of Kentucky.

The first dispatch received Monday said that Mr. Shelby was very ill of acute Bright's disease. This was the first intimation the family here had that he was ill. Shortly afterward another wire came telling of his death. The remains are expected at the family homestead near Shelby City this evening, or tomorrow morning, and interment will follow shortly afterward, at Danville.

Mr. Shelby was between 45 and 50 years of age, and for several years had been in business in the oil fields of Oklahoma. His wife, who was Miss Martha Hubble, daughter of the late Levi Hubble, of this county, preceded him to the grave a number of years ago. Two children survive, Steele Shelby, a young man of 18 or 19 years, and Miss Martha Shelby, aged about 17 who graduates from Margaret College at Versailles this year. In addition the following brothers and sisters survive and have the sympathy of a host of friends and loved ones in their bereavement: Mrs. Anne Darbyshire, Misses Mary Shelby, Tevis Shelby, Florence Shelby, Ike Shelby and Alfred Shelby, all of the Shelby section, Mrs. Lettie Saunders, of New Orleans; Mrs. W. S. Lawwill, of Danville, and Mrs. P. M. McRoberts, of Stanford. Mr. Shelby joined the Baptist church a number of years ago. He was a most estimable gentleman in every way, genial, companionable and a loving father.

5/19/1916