

—Mr. S. E. Owsley has sold his stock of goods to Lorenzo Hubble, and is making arrangements to go to Laurel county, where he has another store. He made a very polite and accommodating merchant, and his many customers regret exceedingly to give him up. But all wish him unbounded success in his new field of labor.

—Thieves have been getting in their work in this vicinity. Mr. James Robinson says he heard a disturbance among his sheep a few nights ago.

8/26/1881-IJ

LINCOLN COUNTY.

Engleman's Mill.

—Wheat sowing is over and some of our farmers have commenced gathering corn.

—Our enterprising merchant, Lorenzo Hubble, has the largest stock of goods in town.

—Mr. G. P. Bright has cut his second crop of tobacco from the same piece of ground.

—Misses Susie and Allie Farris left Tuesday for their home in St. Louis, after spending a week with relations in this vicinity.

—There is some talk of Tom Newland having an opponent from this end of the county. We can't tell what kind of a race he will make, but he is a long fellow.

—Rev. Green Clay Smith will commence a protracted meeting at Providence next Sunday.....Rev. Robert Caldwell will preach at Bright's school-house Sunday at 11 o'clock.

—Took Hubble started South a few days ago with a lot of horses.....There is quite a stir in the cattle market. Our wide-awake trader, D. N. Prewitt, is buying everything that has horns.

Huston

—The number of abs
usually small, considering that this is the 10/28/1881

—Gabe Walters our polite and accommodating clerk at Bright, smiles behind the counter no longer. Lorenzo Hubble in order to curtail his expenses, is running the business himself.

—Your correspondent has had a three week's siege of intermittent fever, the reason why you have had no business at this place for several weeks. Miss Clark

4/11/1882

Engleman's Mill.

—Lorenzo Hubble's store reminds us of a young lady looking for her beau. It has just put on a fresh coat of white wash.

—Mrs. J. Case is suffering with inflammatory Rheumatism. A. J., a little son of R. B. Rice, has been very low with pneumonia.

—Spencer Hubble sold to William Snow, a good work mule for $100. D. N. Prewitt bought an extra fine mule from James Robinson, for $165.

—Some thief a few nights ago stole three or four turkey hens off at Mr. Joe Swope's. They took eggs and

5/12/1882

—Mr. L. G. Hubble, who received a clerkship in the agricultural department at Washington, is being wined and dined at one of the fashionable hotels of that city now, so I notice. I hope Mr. H. will not forget his many friends hereabouts about seed-sowing time.

—The supper given by the ladies of Rush Branch Church at Bright's was a grand success, notwithstanding en sick, more than a month ago.

12/7/1886-IJ

—L. G. HUBBLE, of Lancaster, has been appointed to a position in the Bureau of Animal Industry, at a salary of $1,000 per annum and expenses.

—COL. J. R. CROOKE, the great coal king, was here Wednesday. He is opening several mines at Lily, which are of as fine coal as is in the

11/18/1887-IJ

is prizing his tobacco this week and with ship four hhd's. soon. John Bright sold his crop at an average of $3.65. George Bright sold his best at 9c. Lorenza Hubble ble writes us that New York City is his place of business. Hubble & Eubanks' hogs gained on an average 106 pounds and were weighed to Prewitt at 5 cents.
S. Dunbar is building saw mill is moving to 12/18/1888

counter jumper. Lorenza Hubble received rather a painful kick just above the eye from a horse last Saturday, bruising his face considerably.—Rush Branch Turnpike Company met here Saturday and elected J. C.

5/8/1891-IJ

S. M. Spoonamore has sold his stock scales to R. L. Hubble for $16. L. G. Hubble has bought the Wm. Hubble farm of 286 acres of the other heirs for $40, they making him a tender of their interest in the $2,000, which was willed to Mrs. Hubble her life time, for supporting her. Mrs. Hubble will live with him.

Tom McMellon is at Brodhead for a 12/30/1898

Renz. Hubble bought of Young two extra nice yearlings weighing 1460 lbs at 5 cents.

Jno. Adams bought of Jones, of Pr. laski, 21 head of heifers and steers at 4 cents.

J. W. Miller

3/2/1899-Lancaster

Our old friend, Lorenzo G. Hubble, of the Hubble section, certainly surprised his many friends when he took unto himself a wife last week, for it was generally conceded that he was a bachelor far past redemption. His bride, who was a Miss Anderson, is said to be a most excellent lady and very pretty. "Rentz" ought to be proud of the catch he has made and we suspect he is about the happiest man in his whole section.

HUSTONVILLE.

The D. & D. base ball team defeated the Middleburg team Saturday with a score of 11 to 8. A return game will

4/30/1907

THE residence at Hubble, owned by L. G. Hubble and occupied by Robert Hutchison, late of Wayne county, burned Saturday. It caught from the stable which also burned. It is not known how the stable caught.

A RATHER small crowd gathered at yesterday and business generally was

5/12/1908

Hubble

James McKechnie and wife returned from Cincinnati Saturday where they have been to the celebration of Robert Burn's 153 birthday.

L. G. Hubble is on the tobacco market this week with his crop of tobacco.

George Rankin is also taking his crop to Danville this week.

Kinnaird Bourne bought a pair of mules in Jessamine county, didn't learn the price.

T. C. Rankin came home from Danville very sick last week, don't know know waetner he was tobacco sick or not. His tobacco crop averaged about seven cents.

Mrs. Blackerby has come from Louisville to keep house for her father, Uncle Jack Yeakey.

W. L. Dannagan bought a milk cow from S. B. Sanders at $45. S. B. Sanders bought a sow and pigs from Frank Shearer at $50. L. G. Hubble says he is going to buy him an automobile when old gray dies, but from the looks of old gray it will be some time before an agent will have to call on Mr. Hubble.

James Jones of Buruside has moved to C. C. Cover's.

Dr. Hickie wants to buy a good road mare.

Mr. W. G. Rankin of Ferrysburg has

Public Sale

OF

Jacks AND Jennets

ON

Wednesday, Sept. 22

Beginning at 9:30 a. m.

On account of ill health, I will sell at public auction, my entire herd of consisting of about twenty-five head. Sale will be held at my farm at Hubble, Ky, rain or shine. This herd contains some of the finest jack stock in Kentucky and will be sold without reserve or by-bid.

JACKS AND JENNETS REGISTERED

Prospective purchasers are invited to come to my farm and inspect any of the stock desired.

Dinner will be served on the grounds.

CAPT. T. D. ENGLISH, Auctioneer.

For further information, call on R. L. Hubble, Stanford.

L. G. Hubble,

HUBBLE, KY.

HUBBLE.

Mr. L. G. Hubble died at his home near Hubble, Ky., Saturday night after a lingering illness of brights disease.

Monday morning impressive funeral services were held at the Hubble church, of which he was a member. The services were conducted by Elder F. M. Tinder after which all that was mortal was laid to rest. Mr. Hubble is survived by his wife, who before her marriage was Miss Anderson, and one child who have the sympathy of all in this dark hour.

Deceased was a brother of Senator R. L. Hubble, of Stanford, L. F. Hubble, of Somerset and Mrs. M. B. Eubanks, of Danville.

GAINES

11/25/1915

Three wills have been probated here recently. That of Mrs. Oma Proctor, Mrs. Arthusa Foster and L. G. Hubble. Mrs. Proctor left her estate to her five children to be divided equally when her youngest child is 18. She owned property in this city, valuable property in Louisville and an insurance policy for $5000. Mrs. Foster divided her property equally between her son, J. B. Foster and daughter, Mrs. Bessie Foster McAlister. Mr. Hubble left his property to his wife and daughter.

Chief of Police B. D. Carter, arrested a negro, named Roscoe Blakemore, of Crab Orchard, here today. He was wanted at Crab Orchard.

12/30/1915

FOR SALE: Sow and nine pigs Mrs.

Anna Hubble,

Hubble Ky.

FOR SALE—Fifty barrels of old corn. Phone 12. H. D. Frye, Hubble.

For Sale
hands, gentle

6/14/1917-Lancaster

BOURNE--ANDERSON

The marriage of Miss Minnie Bourne, and Mr. Jesse Anderson, was solemnized at Stanford Saturday, Sept. 7th, in the presence of a few intimate friends and relatives. While the popular couple had been sweethearts for some time their marriage came as a surprise to many.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Bourne of this county and is quite attractive, popular and accomplished. The groom is one of Boyle county's most prominent farmers, and is worthy of the fair bride he has won.

Mr. and Mrs. Anderson will go to housekeeping on the farm of Mrs. Anna Hubble, near Hubble, she being a sister of Mr. Anderson.

No more popular couple was ever known than Mr. and Mrs. Anderson, and their many friends wish for them a long and happy married life.

OFFICIAL HIS 9/12/1918

Mrs. Fisher Harrison of Lexington

Mrs. Anna Hubble and daughter, Mattie Mae, who have been spending the school term in Lancaster have returned to their home at Stubb's for the summer vacation.

7/3/1919-Lancaster

Mrs. Anna Hubble and daughter, Mattie Mae, have returned to their country home where they will spend the summer months.

Mrs. W. B. Mason, Mrs. Sallie Ross Lawson, Miss Sue Shelbourn and Mr. Dave Thomas have been recent visitors in Lexington.

6/2/1921

Miss Nell Noland, a student at

Mrs. Anna Hubble and daughter, Mattie Mae, will spend the yule tide with her father, Mr. Anderson, at Hedgeville.

Mrs. Charles Hardin, of Harrodsburg, has been spending a few days in Lancaster with 12/22/1921 Judge Hardin.

Mrs. J. C. Robinson. Mr. George