PERSONAL.—The pastor for the Methodist Church at this place, Rev. John Godby, will move to our town in a few days.

HIGHLAND.—Our citizens are busily engaged in farming and other avocations; and we are confident that if they are persistent our village will yet come up out of the wilderness and shine as bright as a star on the brow of evening, and peace and plenty compensate them for their efforts and industry. We now have three stores, two blacksmith shops, two shingle machines and four preachers; so you see that if we are not good citizens it is not for the want of ministerial advice.

TEMPERANCE.—Last Sabbath evening at 7 o'clock, the noted and eloquent temperance lecturers, Messrs. T. B. Demaree and J. J. Rusk, lectured at the Methodist Church here to an appreciative audience, giving entire satisfaction to all the friends of temperance present; and we believe that their eloquent appeals and convincing arguments made a good and lasting impression on all who heard them. At the conclusion of the lectures, 23 took the pledge, and an organization of the Independent Order of Good Templars was formed and a lodge constituted, named Highland Star Lodge No. 1238, with the following officers: Rev. J. M. Cook, W. C. T.; Miss Lottie Young, R. H. S.; Miss Lizzie Horton, L. H. S.; Miss Louisa Godby, W. V. T.; H. P. Young, W. P. C. T.; Rev. G. G. Ragan, W. S.; C. M. Young, W. F. S. and L. D.; D. A. Daugh, W. T.; J. M. Hill, W. M.; Miss Mahala Hill W. L. G.; Rev. M. A. Middleton, W. C., and Miss Fannie Russell, W. D. M.
