SURPRISE WEDDING.

Miss Mattie Lee Hubble of Stanford, and Mr. W. O. Martin, also of Stanford surprised their friends, in both Garrard and Lincoln, by motoring to Lexington Wednesday morning where they were quietly married. There was no objection to the wedding as Senator R. L. and Mrs. Hubble accompanied the happy couple.

Miss Mattie Lee spent most of her school days in Lancaster and she has a host of friends here who congratulate the groom and wish her every joy.

HUBBLE—MARTIN

Popular Young Stanford Couple Mo- tor To Lexington And Wed

Without informing any save their most intimate friends of their intentions, William O. Martin and Miss Mattie Lee Hubble of this city, motored to Lexington Wednesday and were united in marriage in the parlors of the Phoenix Hotel by Rev. I. J. Spencer, pastor of the Central Christian church of that city. Few of the host of friends of this popular couple were much surprised at the good news, for they had been sweethearts for some time and there were many rumors that the happy event was soon to take place. They were accompanied to Lexington by Senator R. L. Hubble, parents, of the bride, and Mrs. Malissa Martin, mother of the groom, and at Lexington were met by Miss Lenell Eubanks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Eubanks, of Danville, and a cousin of the bride, who were present when the ceremony was said which made this happy pair one.

Both the bride and groom are very popular with all who know them. She is a very attractive and accomplished young lady, and won the first prize when a student at Hamilton College for the best housekeeper. The groom is a prominent young business man of Stanford. He recently sold out his interest in the firm of Hughes & Martin and has since been engaged in the concrete business here with Bev. Rout. After a wedding trip to Louisville and other points, Mr. and Mrs. Martin will return to Stanford to make their home.

Lancaster friends received the information of the marriage of Miss Mattie Lee Hubble, a former Lancaster girl and W. O. Martin, of Stanford in the city of Lexington. The bride is the attractive daughter of Senator and Mrs. R. L. Hubble and a frequent visitor of Misses Mayme and Ethel Walter of this place.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Collier of Kork Ridge, Tenn., were of Mrs. U. D. Simpson.

GARRARD COUNTY.

Unknown thieves entered the post-office at Lancaster Wednesday night and robbed the safe of $250 in money and stamps. They first broke the combination off the safe with a sledge hammer and then blew the door open with dynamite or nitroglycerine. There is absolutely no clue to the robbers.

Mr. L. E. Herron, chief marshal and tax collector, of Lancaster, has resigned his position. Mr. Lee Pruitt is acting as city marshal.

Beginning on April the 1st the telegraph service was discontinued in Lancaster. An additional charge of fifteen cents will go to the company now to transmit the messages to Danville, the nearest telegraph station. It is quite an inconvenience to the citizens of that city.

Mrs. Sallie Romans Williams, died at her home in Lancaster last Wednesday morning, after an illness of many months.

Miss Mattie Lee Hubble, formerly of Lancaster, but now of Stanford, and Mr. W. O. Martin, also of Stanford, motored to Lexington Wednesday and were married at the Phoenix Hotel.

Miss Hubble is a daughter of Senator R. L. Hubble, formerly of Garrard.
