TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.

Miss Georgia Lewis, the assistant secretary, places us under renewed obligations for kindness in furnishing us notes of the Institute. She is not only one of the handsomest, but one of the very best teachers in the county, as all who have had a chance to judge gladly testify.

The teachers are a more than usually intelligent body of people and the ladies are as a general thing prettier than the average school marms. They also seem to be fully alive to the important work that they are engaged in and determined to do it conscientiously and well.

The Institute opened at 8:30 Tuesday morning with a song by the choir. Rev.

opinions. Miss Alta Hicks then gave her views on How to Teach History. Miss Lizzie Pettus made a nice little talk and was followed by Messrs. Acton, Curtis and Lewis, who talked eloquently and to the point.

NOTES.

The talks of Profs. Goodknight, Pinkerton and Shelton are always highly interesting and instructive.

Wednesday being the day set apart for the trustees the following were present: Messrs. W. O. Rigney, David Scott, M. P. Hubble, Weaver Dunn, and Dr. O'Bannon, who were deeply interested in work.

Prof. T. C. Cherry is the idol of the Lincoln county teachers. He is an excellent instructor and by his manly bearing has won

THURSDAY AFTERNOON.

Civil Government was introduced by Prof. Patterson. He was followed by N. W. Hughes, who made an eloquent speech, which was highly appreciated and applauded by the institute. Prof. White, H. S. Young and the instructor also talked entertainingly on the subject. After recess some rousing songs were sung. Mrs. Annie McClary then made a nice little talk on Temperance, in which she urged all teachers present to teach scientific temperance in their schools. Thursday afternoon being the time set apart for the trustees of the county, M. P. Hubble came forward and made a very interesting speech on education in general. History being the next subject on the program, it was very forcibly and interestingly presented by the instructor, and some fine talks made by the male members of the institute.

Miss Georgia Lewis, always first in every good word and work, has our thanks for the proceedings. Prof. L. R. Hughes also is entitled to our thanks.

An open session of the Teachers' Institute was held at W
