Rev^d & dear Sir

I have to day rec^d. a letter from Imogen of the 27th ult. in which she does not acknowledge the receipt of my letter to her, in which I mentioned my having remitted to you on the 11th ult^o of Fifty dollars, by a check upon the House of Jacob Little & Co.
N. York at sight - These wealthy Bankers are well known all over the U. S. & any Merchant will give you the money upon it as a means of remittance without discount - I fear it may have miscarried, & I will wait a suitable time & unless I have the pleasure to hear from you will procure a duplicate & send to you -

Please to give my love to Imogen - I fear her letters are remodelled for her by her Teacher - please let her write in her own way so that I can judge - I remain In haste Most Resp^y

Rev and Dear Sir

I have today rec'd a letter from Imogen on the 24th in which she does not acknowledge the reception of my letter to her in which I mentioned my having remitted to you on the 11th of $50 by a check upon the house of Jacob Little & Co., NY. These wealthy bankers are well known all over the US and any merchant will give you the money upon it as a means of remittance without discount. I fear it may have ? and I will wait a suitable time and unless I have the pleasure to hear from you will procure a duplicate and send to you.

Please to give my love to Imogen- I fear her letters are ? for her by her teacher-please let her write in her own way so that I can judge-
