

—Mr. William Hubble bought 224 good ewes from a Tennessee gentleman, for which he paid $2.50 per head.

—There will be a picnic at Island No. 10 next Saturday. Every body is invited to attend and bring their baskets with them.

—Last Saturday night Green Preston shot at what he thought to be somebody getting into his watermelon patch, but it turned out to be a horse picking weeds through the fence. He was well sprinkled.

—We are glad to know that Little Phil has got Major Chrisman, the Republican teaser, as he terms him, back into the Democratic harness, and is now driving him with kicking-straps on. He is a good driver, and it takes a big horse to get away with him.

—Misses Belle Lewis and Nora Murphy, of Stanford, were the guests of Mrs. R. B. Rice last week. Misses Samantha Hubble and Susie Bobbitt, of Pulaski, are visiting at Mr. William Hubble's. Mrs. Belle Smith, Mrs. Lillie Fish, and Mr. Walden Smith, of Nicholasville, spent a few days with Mrs. Myron Luce.

Robert Luce, of Lebanon, spent the recreation at his father's —MARRIAGES.—We had the pleasure of witnessing, last Thursday evening at 8 o'clock, the marriage of Mr. Elva Miller, of Springfield, Ill., and Miss Mattie Hubbs, of Lincoln county, which took place at the elegant rural residence of the bride's father; and as this handsome couple assumed their never-to-be broken vows, the bright-eyed, smiling Goddess Juno looked forth from her cloud-veiled shade and spoke in silent but impressive words, her sweet benison upon them. The bride was dressed in brown silk trimmed in braided old gold; corals, First bridesmaids, Miss Samantha Hubbs, lavender silk; diamonds; second bridesmaid, black silk; pearls and natural flowers. The groom and groomsmen, Mess. Spencer Hubbs and George Greene, dressed in conventional style. Eld. Joseph Patton pronounced the ceremony in a brief, appropriate and chaste manner. The invited guests numbered seventy-five, and among them many sparkling, lovely maidens, whose attractions will be remembered and cherished long. The gallant young men of Lincoln and Gerrard abundantly showed their appreciation for these fair ones. The supper was elegantly gotten up, the table arranged in cross-shape with pyramid in the center, and loaded down with all the delicacies known to the edible department. We hope Miss Hubbs a pleasant life in her new home.....

10/29/1880-IJ

HUBBLE

—Bring on your turkeys at 6c and your chickens at 6½c per pound and your eggs at 16½.

—Bro. Caldwell preached a good sermon to his usual good congregation here Sunday morning.

—Having been very busy for the past four weeks, the I. J.'s items from this locality have been neglected.

—We are to have another wedding in about 15 days, but will withhold names if I am invited in the near future.

—Dr. Kinnaird, of Lancaster, presented J. W. Bright with a fine girl last week and the result is that John has smiles all over his face from six inches to a yard long.

—Some corn has been sold at the heap in this settlement for $2. Ed White sold to Sam Woods some 1,150-pound butcher stuff at 2¼. Tom Woods bought of Greenberry Bright 30 choice ewes at $5.00 per head. Greenberry Bright has rented 200 acres of grass land to Love Lillard at $2.50 per acre. Mr. Ed Miller has rented his house to Ed Austin for $60 and has moved to Danville.

—Mrs. Levi Hubble and daughter, Miss Laura, have gone to Colorado to spend the winter. Henry Cox has moved to the Hubble place, near J. J. Walker's. Mrs. S. J. Hubble is thought to be improving. Wm. Herndon was here among his friends Monday. R. L.

CC

SI

FA

H

STA

Queen
Sets. A

—James Engleman and little son are down on a business trip. Little Joe Rice is at home from school in Frankfort.

—S. M. Spoonamore has a ewe which raised him three lambs, which he sold for $13.80 and the wool for $1.50, making an income of $15.30 on one sheep and he has her yet as good as ever.

—S. J. Hubble was able to get to church Sunday for the first time since he got thrown from a buggy about a year ago. Mrs. Jones, of Lexington, is visiting her sister, Mrs. S. E. Owsley, near here.

—D. G. Spoonamore delivered the top bunch of lambs in this neighborhood, the average being 85 pounds. Higgins Alcorn sold a lot of 150-pound stock hogs at 7c. M. F. Elkin bought some butcher stuff here at 3c.

—How to get found when you get

Mrs. F. M. Ware and sister, Mrs Spencer Hubble, will leave in a few days to spend the remainder of the summer in Colorado Springs. Miss Maggie McHardy left Friday to visit her relatives in Canada. A message to his father from John Tanner, who lives in Texas, brings the sad intelligence of the probable fatal illness of one of his children. Dr. Lowder and Charley Crow are getting ready to attend the game of ball at your place to be played by the Bloomer Girls. Dr. Hawkins Brown is not going as he saw them at New Orleans.

6/26/1900-IJ

Mrs. Samantha Hubble, of Stanford, Ky., and Mrs. Nancy Smith, of Somerset, Ky., are visiting the Woodyard, Hilton and Cherry families.

The Misses Keislings gave an oyster ~~Monday~~ ~~night~~ which was well attended. ~~all~~

10/10/1902-Mt Vernon, KY

Among those who went on the excursion to Mammoth Cave Thursday, 30th, were the following: Misses Alice Gooch, Nora Riffe, Pearl Mobley, Mrs. A. R. Nunnelley, Messrs. J. S. Mobley, Sam Beck, Will Beck, Will Dudderar, John Beck and Watt Dudderar. Dr. C. H. Smith, of Atlanta, Ga., was the guest of Miss Gertrude Gooch. Miss Amelia McKinney, of Louisville, is visiting A. B. McKinney. Misses Mae and Alpha Traylor, of Stanford, are the guests of Mrs. Ashlock at the hotel. Miss Maud Lay, who has been visiting relatives in Parksville, has returned home. Miss Berta Murphy, who has been very ill, is convalescing. Mrs. Samantha Hubble, of Stanford, is visiting her sister, Mrs. F. M. Ware.

Pain will depart in exactly 20 minutes if 8/4/1908-McKinney-IJ Tablets is taken. Pain anywhere.

Mrs. G. C. Givens has rented her cottage on Whitley avenue to Mrs. John Hubble and Mrs. Samantha Hubble. Mrs. John Hubble has been living in Bozeman, Okla., for some time, but decided to come back to Stanford to live so she could have the benefit of school.

Mr. J. M. McCarty, who has been in Danville in business some time, moved his family

9/10/1912