

On the invitation of the Knoxville Board of Commerce, delegates from Kentucky counties embracing the cities on the proposed "Eastern" route, and some delegates from Central route, attended a meeting in Knoxville on May 4th, when the matter was gone into and data gone over carefully. The Eastern route was heartily endorsed and committees were appointed to gather further data and attend the Chattanooga meeting of the Dixie Highway Commission on 20th and show up the many reasons and advantages of the Eastern or mountain scenic and historical route.

Shelbyville was represented by Eugene Combs. Among the Richmond delegates were Allen Zaring, R. E. Turley, C. T. Higgins, Joe S. Boggs. Berea sent W. J. Dooley, Prof T. O. Clark Dr. Davis, and Lexington; Edwin L. Quarles. Crab Orchard was represented by R. L. Collier and L. L. Sanders. London by Hon. D. C. Edwards. Corbin by Dr. J. H. Parker. Middlesboro by Senator Joe F. Bosworth, who is always found where there is any road noise going on. Mt. Vernon by W. J. Sparks and James Maret Barbourville, Judge Thomas C Hammond, Judge J. T. Stamper and Thomas Hubble. Pineville, A. C. Carr, Wm. Harr and W. E. Cabell.

Thomas Head Dead In Pulaski.

Thomas Head, a well-known and respected citizen of Plato, Pulaski county, passed away at his home there on June 13th, after a long illness. Mr. Head had a severe attack of grip about two years ago and never fully recovered from it. Deceased was the father of Mrs. J. H. Bustle, of this county. The interment occurred in the Mt. Pleasant cemetery on Tuesday, after funeral services conducted by Rev. Carmichael, pastor of the Baptist church of which Mr. Head was a devoted member. The deceased was 80 years old. He is survived by the following children, Mrs. J. H. Bustle, of this county; Mrs. S. L. Myers, of Plato; Mrs. T. R. Hubble, of Ellisburg; Mr. J. L. Head, of Dabney; J. M. Head and Henry Head, of Plato.

Gold In Clay County?

Danville, Ky., March 21—Returning from his mineral lands in Clay county, T. R. Hubble has brought samples of ore which he believes to be gold. Specimens will be sent to assayists in Lexington and Chicago, and an analysis will be made by chemists at Centre College. Laymen who have examined the ore believe that it either is gold or a valuable mineral having similar characteristics.
