

—Walker & Hubble, of Garrard, bought in Pulaski a few large mules at $125 to $150 per head. Brinkley, Catron & Co. bought 8 mules and 3 horses, at $80 to $125 for the mules and $90 to $150 for the horses. They also bought a car-load of cattle at 2½c.—[Reporter.

—LANCASTER COURT.—There was a fair crowd in town yesterday, 8/24/1886-IJ le to 50,000,000 bushels.

J. J. Walker and Lick Hubble, of Garrard, bought a lot of aged mules in Laurel county, last week, at $65@-$110.

H. L. & F. D. Stout, of Dubuque, Ia., sold to J. M. Stribling, of Virginia, Ill., the lay yearling colt Dubuque, for $5,000. He is of Noro Wilke

9/5/1888-Richmond, KY