

it from her. That was all there was of it and no attempt was made by the boy to do anything wrong. The boy made the same statement and both were corroborated by a young man who was within a hundred yards of the parties. Mr. Kelly, the farmer with whom the boy lived, testified as to his good character. Upon a full hearing of the case the defendant was discharged. The prosecution was conducted by County Attorney pro tem, F. M. Hutchins and Col. W. O. Bradley and the defense by Gen. W. J. Landrum.

—Judge Sterling B. Toney, of Louisville, is a tony speaker, just in his introduction of Hon. Daniel Daugle-

11/13/1891