

CIRCUIT COURT.—The February term of the Lincoln circuit court began yesterday and for two weeks the wheels of justice will grind here. Judge Saufley was not feeling well and he delegated Commonwealth's Attorney Owsley to charge the grand jury, which he did forcibly and comprehensively. Following is the grand jury, with first named as foreman: W. P. White, Isaac Hubbard, J. S. Reynolds, J. W. Spires, A. M. Pence, Thomas Best, J. M. Hubble, J. F. Reynolds, F. M. Yowell, J. T. Chadwick, C. L. Crow, C. A. Redd. The petit jury is composed of the following gentlemen: J. W. Walter, M. B. Eubanks, Sim Rains, C. C. Gover, Geo. R. Engleman, B. T. Lunsford, M. F. Herring, Joseph Hogue, C. C. McClure, D. R. Adams, E. T. Pence, J. M. Cress, Evan Lyon, W. G. Rouston, W. J. Montgomery, D. K. Farris, J. T. Roberts, J. L. Beck, J. G. Livingston, H. C. Baughman, E. O. Singleton, Wm. Matheny, David Scott, C. F. Epperson. The case against John Lunsford, charged with malicious cutting, was dismissed. Thomas Leisure, charged with rape, will be tried Thursday and Mace Miller, detaining a woman, on Friday. Thomas Melton caught a $20 fine for disturbing religious worship and William Goodrich and Eph Murphy $15 each for breach of the peace. Hugh Hagan was fined for giving whisky to a minor.
