

John Hubble and W. G. Ting, each 70 years of age, died near Somerset Saturday. They served in the same company under Gen. McClelland in the Civil War and had been inseparable friends during their long career, having attended school together in their boyhood days.

Kills Would-B

A merciless murderer is append

3/16/1909-IJ