Teachers' Institute.

The Lincoln County Teachers' Institute was called to order by Supt. Garland Singleton Tuesday morning.

Rev. P. J. Ross conducted the devotional exercises with Miss Elizabeth Lay at the organ. Supt. Singleton made an excellent opening address in which he mentioned the improvements in the public school system since the last institute. After this he introduced Prof. R. S. Eubank as instructor. Prof. Eubank conducted the institute in 1903 and was unanimously chosen to conduct this institute. He is an all round school man. His heart is in his work and he is well read and keeps up with the progress of legislation on the subject of schools. Prof. Eubank made an interesting address on the subject of future legislation on three important

WAYNESBURG.

Lovell D. Gooch and Miss Beatrice Reynolds, a former couple of this place, were married in Somerset Thursday by Rev. O. M. Huey.

A number of friends surprised Mrs. D. W. Caldwell Saturday by giving her a birthday dinner. There were about 80 present and everyone seemed to have a good time.

Miss Lucy Hubble visited her brother, W. B. Hubble, at this place Saturday and Sunday. Mrs. Henry Nolan is visiting her daughter in Danville. Mrs. C. G. Caldwell, Mrs. Tipton Sims and Miss Cora Singleton visited relatives in Somerset. Miss E. [redacted] has been visiting her [redacted]. Dumas returned to her home in Lex-

BUSINESS BRISK IN LINCOLN COUNTY COURT

Several Wills Offered for Probate And Road Overseers Are Named to Work County Roads

Administrators and executors of several estates were appointed in the county court last week. Road engineers have also been named for the county, and work on the dirt roads will be pushed from now on.

Daniel Broughton qualified as administrator of Sherman Wren, deceased with J. S. Broughton as surety. Wm. Jackson, J. M. Brown and Gene Brown were named as appraisers of the estate.

Mrs. Mildred Stigall qualified as administratrix of the estate of A. H. Stigall, with T. J. Stigall as surety. J. C. Bailey, J. P. Rogers, and Garner Price were named as appraisers.

Upon the declination of Dr. N. H. McKinney to act as administrator of the late Mrs. Bettie C. McKinney, W. M. Bright was named to perform the office and qualified as such with J. B. Paxton, Lee Hill and J. W. Rochester appraisers.

Mack Williams, who some time ago had been adjudged of unsound mind, was held to be a sane person now by a jury in the county court.

Mrs. Eliza Coffey was appointed as guardian of William B. Coffey, a minor 18 years of age. She furnished $500 bond with Arthur C. Coffey as surety.

B. W. Givens was named administrator of the estate of the late Mrs. Neppie M. Givens, with J. B. Paxton as surety.

The will of Mrs. Kate Powell, of Hustonville, was offered for probate in the county court, and proven by oaths of J. W. Hoskins and W. J. Childress, witnesses. Her son-in-law, C. W. Adams was named as executor, without bond, and an equal division of her estate to her children was made, after special bequests to two of her daughters, Mrs. C. W. Adams and Miss Jessie Powell.

The will of Anton Hoehn was proven upon oath of August Abt and John Wentzel. John Camenisch was named and qualified as executor.

The will of the late J. W. Alcorn was proven and offered for probate, naming Mrs. Sophia Alcorn and Kendrick S. Alcorn as joint executrix and executor without bond, and the will bequeaths the deceased's interest in their home on Danville avenue to his wife, for life and provides for the sale of his office building on Lancaster street, after making some special bequests to his children. Dr. Edward Alcorn, J. W. Rochester and W. M. Bright were appointed appraisers of the estate.
