Paper Mill of GLESSNER & GILBERT, Zanesville, Ohio.

IN 1828, Ezekiel T. Cox and Simeon Wright, who were at that period operating a saw mill at the north end of Seventh street, in Zanesville, conceived the idea of establishing a paper mill in connection with their lumber mill, and proceeded at once to put their plans into execution by the erection of a wooden structure for this purpose, which was operated by the same power that propelled their saw mill. This was the initial or pioneer manufacturing industry of any note in the town of Zanesville, and was the second paper mill established in Ohio. Its machinery was simple, and the process crude, of converting rags into printing and writing papers, the sheets being formed by hand in a slow and tedious manner, in accordance with the primitive processes in use in those early times. This rude paper mill became a power in this Western country, its product finding a ready market throughout Central Ohio and in the Northwest, and in the Western Territories, until these had outgrown its power to supply the demand for paper, and for years, even to dates running not very far back into the past, this paper mill was identified with Zanesville as its leading landmark, in the minds of Western people scattered over a vast extent of territory.

The changes that this mill has since undergone in proprietorship are accurately noted on pages 88 and 89, to which the reader is referred.

In the early period of telegraphy the process of taking off messages was by passing narrow strips of soft white paper through an instrument that registered the words communicated by perforations on this paper. It was evident that the consumption of this paper must be large, but the process of supplying it was a slow, simple and tedious operation, performed by hand. A mechanic, who commenced employment in the Zanesville Paper Mill in 1838, and is still with it as its Superintendent, conceived the idea that this telegraph paper could be made and cut by machinery, and he soon successfully worked out a method of accomplishing this with perfect accuracy, and rapidly enough to supply the entire demand. His invention immediately met a great want in telegraphy, and there soon grew up a large demand, not only in this country but in Europe, and wherever the teregraph had strung its wires. It was made in rolls of six to seven inches diameter, and cut in strips of one inch in width, and formed a large, important and profitable element in the business of this mill for many years, as it was the only place where it was manufactured. The inventor, C. R. Hubbell, never patented his process, and numberless mills in the country experimented to copy or improve his method, but never succeeded. It has had its day, however, and has gradually gone into disuse.

For more than half a century the busy wheels of this paper mill have responded day and night continuously to the demands upon it. It furnishes employment, directly and indirectly, to many persons and families, and its work seems to be but fairly begun. It was identified with the first dawn of the prosperity of Zanesville, and its usefulness and prosperity will continue to be identical with the solid growth of its favored locality, and years will yet pass before its mission is fulfilled.

Hubbell, Thomas Hubbell and William Nutt, This firm conducted the business about one year. when Thomas Hubbell and William Nutt withdrew, and the business was continued by the remaining partners until April 1, 1859, when C. R. Hubbell sold his interest to James M. Leonard, and soon after this property was conveyed to Mrs. E. M. Cox, and the firm name became Elizabeth M. Cox & Co., and was managed by James L. Cox, her husband.

In 1869, Mrs. Cox sold a half interest to John Gilbert, and the firm name became Cox & Gilbert, and so continued until November 1, 1868, when Jacob Glessner, John Gilbert and Terry became the owners of the mill, and shortly after this Glessner & Gilbert purchased the interest of Mr. Terry, and made valuable improvements. They continue to own and manage the establishment, and have won an enviable reputation for their products, far and near.

MATHEWS' PAPER MILL.—The original purpose of the present building was a cotton factory; it did not succeed, and after standing idle for a number of years was sold by the Sheriff, about 1865, to Edward Mathews, who associated with him George Rishtine, for the purpose of paper making. Mathews & Co. removed the old machinery and placed apparatus and machinery for the manufacture of paper, and made sundry improvements and additions to the premises, at a cost of about twenty-five thousand dollars. Other additions, amounting to about fifteen thousand dollars, have been made since that time.

The firm of Mathews & Co. dissolved in 1876, since which time the business has been conducted by E. Mathews, proprietor, Mr. George Rishtine, who has managed the business from the beginning, being retained in that capacity.

The mill began by making coarse wrapping paper and tea paper. Printing paper and manilla paper are the kinds now made, amounting in all to four thousand pounds daily. The amount of business done annually is about sixty thousand dollars. The monthly pay-roll is about one thousand dollars.

The mill is on the southwest corner of Zane and Underwood streets.

EARLY PAINTERS.—E. H. Church was of the opinion that Wesley Alwine, who came in 1828, was the first to engage in painting for a business. He was "a genius in his way," and considered a fine workman. Merrick Barr came soon after and opened his shop in Putnam. Daniel McCarty (who prided himself in being one of the F. F. V's., in spite of his name), worked for Barr, and they were fond of saying that their customers were "the old Yankees," meaning the Buckinghams, Sturges, Whipple, Putnam, Dr. Robert Safford and Major Horace Nye.

McCarty opened a shop in Zanesville proper in 1853, and subsequently engaged in merchandising.

POTTERY.—Samuel Sullivan, of Philadelphia,

Pa., came to Zanesville in the spring of 1808, and lived in a cabin adjoining Gen. Van Horne's farm house, on the northeast corner of Main and Third streets, and began the manufacture of red-ware; he built a moderate sized kiln and made plates, cups and saucers, besides other household articles. He was a sober, industrious man, born in the State of Delaware, April 10, 1772; he died on his farm in Falls township, October 15, 1853. In 1840, Bernard Howson, John Hallam, George Wheaton and two other experienced potters, originally from Staffordshire, England, came to Zanesville and engaged in the manufacture of potter's wares. In the spring of 1846, John Howson (brother of Bernard) joined the company, and this firm continued until 1852, when John Howson and his son Bernard became sole owners. This pottery, from the last date up to 1863, did an annual business of $8,000. In 1863, John Howson died, and the business was continued by his son Bernard. About this time, the general business was making ink bottles. In 1874 the establishment was leased by Fisher and Lansing, of New York City, for the manufacture of floor tiling.

In 1849, George Pyatt, from Staffordshire, England, came to Zanesville and began the manufacture of Rockingham and yellow stoneware. In 1851, Mr. Pyatt and Christopher Goetz formed a partnership, which continued two years, when Pyatt removed to Cincinnati, where he started, one after another, about all of the early potteries of that city. In 1859, Mr. Pyatt and three other Englishmen removed to Kaolin, Mo., and there operated in the manufacture of white ware until the breaking out of the war, when Pyatt returned to Cincinnati, and in 1863 he returned to Zanesville and engaged with Mr. Howson until 1866, when he began business for himself. In 1878, he had enlarged his capacities for business by a ten horse power engine, boiler and suitable machinery, but died March 15, 1879. The business has been conducted by his son, J. G. Pyatt, since that time. They are known as the Tremont Pottery, and turn out about $2,000 worth of pottery annually.

In 1868, N. K. Smith began the manufacture of pottery, and, with the aid of seven men, turns out about seventy-five gallons of ware.

In 1874, Duncan Hamelback built a pottery in the Ninth Ward; his establishment manufactures jugs, jars, churns, etc.

In 1878, Calvin Bumbaugh bought a pottery in the Ninth Ward, known as the "Star Pottery," built in 1873 by Alfred Wilber; seven men are employed there, and they turn out about eighty-five thousand gallons of ware annually.

REVENUE, INTERNAL.—Mr. John Reynolds, principal Assessor for the Fifth District of Ohio, appointed his Deputies May 2d, 1815, for that year. For Washington county, Colern C. Barton; Muskingum county, James Victors, then living in West Zanesville; Guernsey county, Dr. E. Lee; Coshocton county, Lewis Vail; Tuscarawas county, Robert F. Capis. This Internal gular piece west of Fourth street. The land lying on the river bank north of Water street he divided into five lots, calling them "River Bank lots."

Hall's second addition was made by John Hall, June 15, 1838, being part of river bottom lot No. 3, and consists of four fractional lots lying between Howard's sub-division and Fifth street, and four lots fronting the east side of Fifth street.

John Hall's third addition, also part of out-lot three, is a lot thirty-seven feet square, on the west side of Fifth street, and one lot 37x132 feet fronting the east side of Fifth street. It was made June 2, 1842.

John Hall's fourth addition, made July 31, 1848, is another part of outlot three, and consists of six lots fronting Seventh street on the west side and running back to Sewer alley.

Robert Mitchell's addition is a sub-division of part of outlot four, made May 24, 1839, and consists of three fractional lots fronting the west side of Fifth street, six lots fronting the east side of Sixth street and one lot fronting the west side of Seventh street.

G. A. Jones' addition is also a part of outlot four, consisting of six lots fronting the west side of Sixth street, south of what is known as the "old Rope Walk lot." The plat is dated February 18, 1850.

John R. Howard, January 8, 1836, sub-divided a part of outlot five, which sub-division was called by the name of "Howard street lots." Two lots front Fifth street, north of Howard; thirteen lots front the north side of Howard street; three lots front Seventh street; a large lot, running from Fifth street nearly to Seventh street on the south of Howard street, is called the rope walk lot. It has since been cut up, by reason of Sixth street and the alleys being extended north to Howard street; the east end of Howard street is the shape of an arc of a circle, the center point of which, in the original plat, was north of the street, but the Common Pleas Court at the April term, 1837, upon petition of John R. Howard, changed it so the center of the circle would fall south of the street.

Paper Mill Addition.—This addition was made April 1, 1861, and was formed by a sub-division of Marple's outlots six and seven, made by James L. Cox, George Rishtine, C. R. Hubbell and Elizabeth M. Cox: Two large lots (Nos. one and two) and three small lots, front the west side of Seventh street; twelve lots front the south side and five lots front the north side of Zane street.

Cox's sub-division of lots nineteen, twenty, twenty-one and twenty-two in the paper mill addition by J. L. Cox, April 1, 1816. Five lots fronting north side of Zane street and one lot fronting the railroad.

The Zanesville Canal and Manufacturing Company, November 15, 1836, laid out the land lying between Second street and the river, and north of Market, into eleven lots, three of which were not numbered.

WEST ZANESVILLE.

In the partition of their property, between McIntire and Zane, all that part of West Zanesville lying east of Blue avenue was deeded to McIntire and that west to Zane.

John McIntire, March 23, 1809, laid out a tier of lots fronting the west side of River street, which were numbered on the recorded plat from one to twenty inclusive. Several years afterwards it was discovered that the lots had been deeded as if in squares of eight lots to the square, while there were no squares designated on the recorded plat. This led to a great confusion in the conveyances, which was remedied by a special act of the Legislature passed March 2, 1838 (Local Laws 1838, p. 156), which declared that the recorded plat should govern.

The administrators of John McIntire, March 12, 1861, laid out twelve lots north of lot twenty, fronting the west side of River street, which were numbered from twenty-one to thirty-two, both inclusive. McIntire's administrators, June 17, 1865, laid out "River addition to West Zanesville," consisting of eight lots between River street and the river, running southerly from McIntire avenue.

McIntire's administrators, July 19, 1863, made another addition to West Zanesville, consisting of eighty-one lots, numbered from thirty-three to one hundred and thirteen, both inclusive. This addition is bounded north by McIntire avenue, east by Peters' alley, south by Lee street, west by Blue avenue, and includes "McIntire Park," containing twelve and fifty-two one-hundredths acres.

Philip Sunkel, February 4, 1870, sub-divided lot ninety-nine, making eight lots fronting north side of Keen street, with an alley sixteen and one-half feet wide north, and leaving a strip three and one-half feet wide extending along the entire length of the lot.

Jacob Gunther, September 6, 1875, sub-divided lots ninety-five and ninety-six, making three lots running from Keen street to Jackson street.

Peter Schreck and Gottlieb Schoeller, January 1, 1869, sub-divided lot 102, making six lots fronting Park street, six lots north and six lots south of Grant street and six lots fronting Keen street.

James Turner, September 30, 1869, sub-divided lot 103, making five lots fronting north-east side of Keen street, five lots fronting south side of a thirty-six foot street, and a large lot, number eleven, fronting Park street. March 1, 1875, he sub-divided the lot number eleven, making six lots fronting the narrow cross street, numbered from eleven to sixteen, and a large lot, number seventeen, fronting Park street. March 14, 1876, he sub-divided the lot number seventeen, making five lots, numbered from seventeen to twenty-one, all fronting the south side of Park street.

Abraham Laird, August 11, 1869, subdivided lot 108, making six lots on the east side of Fulton street.

life, as for example President James A. Garfield, who once served on the tow-path!

BOATS THAT HAVE TRAVERSED THE MUSKINGUM SINCE THE ADVENT OF THE WHITE MAN.

About 1822, Richard Reeves built a small boat, which was known as "Dicky Reeves' first steam boat;" it, however, was propelled by horse power. Mr. Reeves subsequently built the boats that were called "Faith," and "Charity."

In 1829, Captain Wm. Scales built a keel boat which he named "The Rifleman of Zanesville;" these boats ran between Zanesville and Pittsburgh, making the trip each way in from four to six weeks."

The "Hope," a flat bottomed boat, with a wheel at the stern, was the first boat on the Muskingum river that was propelled by steam; it was built by Richard Reeves in 1827-8. The engine was made at the Richmond and Bostwick foundry, by Mr. Nicholson, a machinist from Pittsburgh. Mr. Reeves also built the "Walhonding," a twenty ton boat intended for low water on the Ohio; and in 1828 he launched the "Mary Ann," a fifty ton boat, commanded by Captain Nicholson. She made her trial trip to Coshocton, was successfully floated over the dam, and, on that account, was called "Sam Patch." James Sprague owned this boat.

The "Zanesville," was built in 1833, by Captain Wm. Scales and John Alter, Jr. Her machinery was constructed and placed by Messrs. Dare and Ebert. This was "a stern wheeler. Wm. Scales, Captain.

The "Tuscarora," was built in 1835, by the same parties.

The "Muskingum," Frank Cogswell Captain, was built in Zanesville in 1845, by the Bishop Brothers; the machinery by Ebert and Whitaker.

The "Belle Zane" was built a short time previous, and intended for the trade between Zanesville and New Orleans. During the night of January 8th, 1845, twelve miles below the mouth of White river, in the Mississippi, she struck a snag and sunk. Out of ninety passengers, only fifty escaped drowning, and a number of those who reached the shore froze to death. Munroe Ayers was Captain and David Hahn engineer of the ill-fated boat—they survived.

The "Moxahala" was built during 1845; and the "Putnam," about that time—the latter by—Blue and Robert Hazlett ("Black Bob"), at the foot of Second street, just below the Second street M. E. Church, and launched in the canal. It was a hundred and fifty ton boat. The machinery was made by Ebert and Loudan.

The "Zanesville," (the second by this name) was built in 1846, by Perry Smith.

The "Jenny Lind" was built at McBride's ship yard, (located where the new power house of the city water works now stands), for M. W. Graham & Co. Ebert and Loudan made the machinery. Chas Gallagher was Captain.

The "Phil Dodridge" was built by Bishop & Co., in 1848-9. The machinery by Ebert and Loudan.

The "Independence," the largest and most powerful side wheel steamer of that date—1850—was constructed for Beaumont and Hollingsworth. Geo. W. Graham was Captain.

The "Buckeye Belle" was built in 1850, and blown up at Beverly Locks in 1852, when thirty-two persons perished.

The "Ohio" was built in 1853, for the trade between Zanesville and Dresden.

The "Julia Dean" was built at Marietta, about the same time, and brought to Zanesville for her machinery, which was furnished by Ebert & Loudan.

The "Del Norte," a stern wheeler, was built at Zanesville, and made her first trip in 1852 or '53.

The "Daniel Convers" was launched in 1853, and "Emma Graham" in 1855.

The Geo. B. Reeves, White Cloud, Rainbow and Live Oak were also in the trade, according to Mr. Elias Ebert, to whom we are indebted for the foregoing data; and from a journal kept by Mr. "Milt" C. McLaughlin the following additional names have been obtained, omitting such as were named by Mr. Ebert:

The City Council of Zanesville applied to the County Commissioners for the privilege of annexing certain territory to that city. February 28, 1870, an ordinance was passed by the City Council of Zanesville, applying to the County Commissioners for the annexation of certain contiguous territory; this ordinance described, by metes and bounds, south Zanesville, with all its additions. The County Commissioners met May 18, 1870, for the purpose of considering the act of Council, and granted their request.

June 1, 1870, a transcript of the proceedings of said County Commissioners was filed with the City Council, that being their next regular meeting. August 1, 1870, the City Council created the Seventh Ward of the city of Zanesville out of the territory above described.

PUTNAM ANNEXED TO ZANESVILLE.—At a meeting of the City Council of Zanesville, February 26, 1872, an ordinance was passed annexing the town of Putnam to the city of Zanesville, and said ordinance, being submitted to the people on the first Monday of April, 1872, was approved by a majority of their votes being cast in favor of it.

At a meeting of the City Council, held April 22,

1872, an ordinance was passed accepting the town of Putnam as an addition to the city of Zanesville; and on the 6th of May, following, an ordinance was passed, constituting the said annexed territory the Ninth Ward of the city of Zanesville.

“Cliffwood,” and that portion of Putnam south of it, was included in this annexation, as was also that portion to the west line, and north of Muskingum avenue, being the north line of said corporation.

MERCHANTS, MECHANICS AND PROFESSIONAL MEN OF SPRINGFIELD.

The following exhibit will be found more extensive in kind than Western villages can generally show, and eloquently sets forth the inducements to settle in the community. The list begins with the first merchant and first professional man in Springfield. Some of these have successors at this day. The writer would willingly indulge in reminiscences concerning these, in order to gratify a legitimate curiosity on the part of the reader, and his own fondness for story-telling, and thus perpetuate their prominent traits of character and influence in society, but feels constrained to do just as well as their posterity, who have not been careful to preserve these, even in a legendary form. So that it behooves the present generation to take warning, that it may be truly said—he lived.

No drop of that clear stream its way shall miss
To thy sire's heart, replenishing its source
With life, as the soul rejoins the universe.
Nor fail to fill the heart of the scious coming
With a loving and ambitious longing,
A treasure of the holiest memory—
Though his head be ne'er so hoary.

The list is given in the order in which the representatives are believed to have appeared, only following in the various classes:

Dr. Increase Matthews, merchant and physician.

This was the second Lodge in Zanesville, and started off under very flattering circumstances. The founders were fired with zeal to carry out the great principles of the order, and to teach within its walls the principles of fraternal love, and to build up Odd Fellows.

Of the names so memorable thirty years ago, four have passed to the other shore, and entered the Celestial Lodge above. We cherish fondly the names of Durban, Porter, Fracker and Leckey; they were worthy brothers. Post Grand Thomas Durban was one of Zanesville's brightest and most influential Odd Fellows; cordial and warm hearted, his hand was ever open to a brother in need. And, though mild and generous, he would contend vigorously in debate to the last extremity. He died June 2d, 1876. Silvers Porter, is a name that awakens many warm memories. He ever maintained the spirit of fidelity which characterizes the true Odd Fellow. Brothers Leckey and Fracker were active and worthy members; their devotion to the principles of Odd Fellowship was worthy of emulation.

The first officers of Moxahala Lodge were: A. W. Perley, Noble Grand; Silvers Porter, Vice Grand; E. W. Cox, Secretary; G. Arthur, Permanent Secretary; Thomas Durban, Treasurer. Trustees—T. L. Fracker, L. H. Bigelow and G. Arthur.

Moxahala Lodge has never suffered the appeal of the widow or orphan to go unheeded. Her members have noble hearts, and never saw "the righteous forsaken, or his seed begging bread." Members have been added who have been found worthy to bear the armor of her pioneer chieftains, as one by one they laid it down, thus ever bearing aloft the glorious banner, on which is inscribed, Friendship, Love and Truth.

Since its organization, Moxahala has received within her borders, by invitation, 389 members. Her present active membership is 133, and her dormant list 149.

The total amount of her general fund is.....	$4,525 23
Widows and orphans.....	326 83
Total Assets.....	$4,852 06

During her history, she has added to her list of Past Grands: W. R. Hazlett, C. C. Russell, Samuel G. McBride, W. B. Hubbell, George D. Gibbons, John Gerwick, George W. Griffin, W. M. Chappellear, Wm. Lee, T. L. Fracker, T. B. Townsend, Joseph Crosby, W. A. Brown, W. H. Smallwood, Chas. Symons, M. Richman, L. D. Sandel, James Bridwell, John T. Irvine, Wm. A. Twaddle, George W. Coon, Hiram Waller, Isaac Hillier, W. H. Minter, John C. Taylor, Samuel Bateman, Samuel Oldham, John W. Howland, John Brooks, Edward Gigax, David Stewart, John T. Lynn, W. H. Duvall, R. G. Leuman, Robert Butler, Wm. Mangold, Milton Strait, W. S. Hannum and Elisha Peairs.

Present officers: Noble Grand, George Murdock; Vice Grand, Charles E. Huff; Permanent

Secretary, Theodore McCadden; Recording Secretary, W. H. Shepherd; Treasurer, W. H. Smallwood. Trustees—S. G. McBride, Edward Gigax, R. S. Butler, F. S. Gates and R. G. Leuman.

Within the last decade, Moxahala has received many valuable members, and with her steadily increasing Treasury, her power for good, and the promulgation of the sublime principles of the order, is a just source of pride.

They meet in Odd Fellows' Hall.

ODD FELLOWS' HALL.—February 22d, 1851, Muskingum Lodge appointed a committee, consisting of Brothers Howard, Pike, Church, Fracker, and Brenholts, with instructions to petition the Legislature of Ohio for a charter for a Hall Association. The same month, by special act, a charter was granted, creating "Odd Fellows' Hall Association," with Robert Howard, as President. The brethren of the Lodges represented, subscribed for the greater part of the stock, which consisted of two hundred and forty-one shares, at fifty dollars each, taken as follows:

Muskingum Lodge, eighty-four shares.

Moxahala Lodge, fifty-six shares.

Mechanics Lodge, twenty-three shares.

Howard Encampment, forty-six shares, and the remainder was taken by citizens, not members. The stock has since been sold at one hundred dollars per share.

In 1851, the Association purchased of Applegate & Tallant, parts of lots 1 and 2, east half, fronting on the south side of Main street, corner of the alley, for the sum of $4,000, and erected thereon a substantial three-story brick building, that even at this day is regarded as one of the imposing structures of Zanesville. The cost of this edifice was $24,000.

The Hall was dedicated with the usual imposing ceremonies, on Thursday, September 9th, 1852. The street parade was a grand affair; some three hundred and fifty of the resident Odd Fellows and visiting brethren were in the ranks. The long procession, as it passed through the principal streets, was the subject of many well-merited compliments. The Hon. L. P. Marsh, of this city, delivered the address, after which the dedication ceremonies were performed. The occasion was enlivened by the Wheeling and Dresden Bands, discoursing choice and appropriate music. The scene closed by a grand ball and supper, which was largely attended by the wives and daughters of the members.

THE DEGREE OF REBECCA.—The origin of this beautiful degree has been credited to the Hon. Schuyler Colfax, who, with William T. Martin and E. G. Steele, a committee of the Grand Lodge, appointed to mature it, reported it to that body, by whom it was adopted, September 15th, 1851. It was felt to be needed, in order to satisfy the longing of the wives and daughters of the brethren to share the joyous contemplation of the work of benevolence, and the "labor of love," as well. And when they remembered Hannah, Deborah, Ruth, Esther, Sarah, Miriam and Rebecca of old, how noted they were for just such devotion and self-sacrifice as are practiced by every true Odd Fellow, the demand for such a bond of union, as this beautiful degree supplies, became imperative.

ELIZABETH LODGE, No. 26.—This Lodge was instituted January 12, 1870, in Zanesville, at Odd Fellows' Hall, by the Grand Master of the State, James Turner, of Dayton, Ohio, assisted by Past Grands, William Langton, Harvey Hubbell, Thomas Sloan, and C. Fracker; the following persons appeared as charter members: Charles Neimeyer, Isabella Neimeyer, Isaac Piersol, E. V. Piersol, Lewis Brenholts, Sidney Brenholts, John Bowman, Elizabeth Bowman, E. L. Grigsby, Nancy Grigsby, John Greiner, Maria Greiner, Wolf Dryfus, Eva Dryfus, T. L. Fracker, J. H. Coke, George W. Griffin, Hattie Griffiee, Isaac Hillier, Sarah Hillier, Ferdinand Hess, Theresa Hess, A. Schaum, Elizabeth Schaum, Elizabeth Howard, Wm. L. Langton, and Isabella Langton.

The large and elegant Lodge room was filled to its utmost capacity by the members of the several Lodges. The name, Elizabeth, was chosen, in honor of Elizabeth Howard, consort of the late Robert Howard, after whom the Encampment was named.

The exercises of institution being concluded, the installation of officers into their respective stations was conducted by the Grand Master and assistants named above. The first officers were: Noble Grand, W. L. Langton; Vice Grand, E. V. Piersol; Secretary, Hattie Griffiee; Treasurer, W. Dryfus.

The occasion was then made social by congratulatory speeches, remarkable for the flow of cheerful and fraternal sentiment, such as will long be remembered by the participants. Prominent among those who specially enlivened the occasion was "old Governor," P.G., John Greiner, noted for his wit, poetry and song. He wrote a song entitled, the "Daughters of Rebecca," and sang it on the occasion. A simple slab, with its inscription, marks the place where the beloved Patriarch sleeps; but his memory is embalmed in the hearts of the fraternity.

Isaac Piersol, another of the charter members, untiring and zealous in the performance of duty, has passed the portals whence no traveler returns, and for whom the fraternity cherish fond recollections.

Among the distinguished members who survive that day, is "Aunt Howard," widow of the Patriarch, of Encampment fame. Bereft of her most worthy companion, she leans, so to speak, on the arm of the fraternity, by whom she is especially honored. She is held to sustain the same touching relation to the Sisters as did Sarah of old to the mothers in Israel.

John W. Andrews, the present Treasurer, who has been one of the principal supporters and counsellors, seldom or never fails to attend the meetings, although living several miles away. His zeal commends itself to every member of the fraternity, and inspires their devotion.

The present officers are: Noble Grand, Jacob Strait; Vice Grand, Mrs. Melissa Mechlin; Recording Secretary, Mrs. Elizabeth Bryan; Treasurer, John W. Andrews. The meetings are held in the Odd Fellows' Lodge room, on the second and fourth Friday evenings of each month.

WOODLAWN LODGE, No. 228.—Special Deputy, Alexander Glenn, assisted by Past Grands, Thomas Durban, Robert Howard, and Henry Granger, instituted this Lodge March 16th, 1854, the following Brothers appearing as charter members: J. B. Erwin, Alexander Stewart, Nicholas Remlinger, Frederick Dietrich, G. F. Wiles, George Wolford, N. K. Smith, Norman Dodge, John C. Wilbur, Leroy S. Perry, G. F. Mervin, and Richard B. Osmond.

Woodlawn took high rank as a working Lodge, from its inception, gathering within its folds those inspired with a lively zeal for good deeds.

The first officers were: Noble Grand, Frederick Deitrich; Vice Grand, J. B. Erwin; Secretary, G. F. Wiles; Treasurer, G. F. Mervin.

Twenty-six years of history in the work of Benevolence, have enriched her members, in the promulgation of her sacred teachings, and expanded their charities, until the mantle has covered a multitude; while time has wrinkled the brow, and silvered the locks of many yet with us, and thinned the ranks by death, until the warning that all must pass away is but too painfully evident; and amid this wreck, where, but for the grand ministrations of Odd Fellowship, all would have been gloom and desolation, is found the fruits of her work, in comfort for the widow and orphan, and the solace for the death bed—of well done, thou good and faithful servant. It would be invidious, where so many have been faithful, to institute comparison. There are those, however, who have specially signaled themselves for their energy and zeal in the cause, as, for instance, the venerable Past Grand, Francis R. Potts; in his life, he exemplified the fraternal love inculcated by Odd Fellowship. Past Grand, H. B. Taylor, who was seldom permitted to be out of office, was noted for his legislative ability, and the records show his zeal in discharging his duties as an Odd Fellow.

"Though now entombed their mortal frames may lie,
That which so endeared them, shall never die."

There are many noble workers in this Lodge. Of the charter members remaining, Past Grand, Frederick Dietrich, G. F. Wiles, and Nicholas Remlinger, deserve special mention for their untiring devotion to the grand principles of the Order; many years of service, have made these dearer to them; and they, by their influence, have implanted them in the breasts of many who have been led to the fold by their example.

Of the initiated, John H. Drake, who was among the first, has attained an enviable distinction for thorough acquaintance with Lodge business, and the care with which he performs the duties entrusted to him; ability and zeal characterize his efforts.

John W. Andrews, the present Representative, and Deputy Grand Master, of Muskingum county, is one of the most zealous members of the fraternity in this section of the State; the great cause of human brotherhood finds in him a zealous and intelligent advocate.

The following comprise the list of the Past Grands: F. Dietrich, G. F. Wiles, Perry Wiles, N. R. Smith, E. A. Farquhar, Sr., H. Israel, J. H. Drake, A. R. Josselyn, N. Remlinger, J. S. Marcellus, Joseph Shaw, Joseph Crooks, D. Hammelbach, S. C. Haver, J. A. Parshall, M. F. Able, J. W. Andrews, H. Ratcliff, T. Berkshire, William Phillips, W. C. Townsend, J. T. Palmer, and E. A. Farquhar, Jr.

The present officers are: N. G., James Curtis; V. G., J. P. Taylor; Recording Secretary, J. A. Parshall; Permanent Secretary, John Bowers; Treasurer, Nicholas Remlinger; Trustees, Joseph Shaw, J. Marcellus and T. C. Berkshire.

During the twenty-six years of her existence, Woodlawn Lodge has initiated two hundred and nine members, and received thirty by card. The present active membership is eighty-five.

The financial condition shows an investment of $2,000 in good securities, and a widows' and orphans' fund of $1,000, showing a healthy condition, and with the well known energy and fidelity of her standard bearers, great things will continue to be done in the name of the Order.

MECHANICS LODGE, I. O. O. F., No. 230—The charter was granted by the Grand Lodge, in session in Circleville, Ohio, February, 1854. Alex. V. Glenn, Grand Secretary, was deputized to institute the new Lodge, in Zanesville, March 24, 1854. The following were the charter members: M. Keyes, Lewis Snyder, Jacob Lyda, William H. Christ, Thomas Griffith, William H. Shaffer, R. S. Fairchild, John Kuhn, A. J. Hahn, William L. Langton, and Frederick Howell.

The Deputy Grand Master, assisted by District Deputy, Henry Granger, of Muskingum Lodge, with other visiting brethren, instituted Mechanics Lodge, No. 230, and installed the officers, who were: Jacob Lyda, N. G.; Lewis Snyder, V. G.; Frederick Howell, Secretary; William H. Shaffer, Treasurer.

Of the charter members, William H. Christ, Lewis Snyder, A. J. Hahn, and J. Kuhn, have passed "over the river."

The first initiated were John Drumm, James P. Kimberly, and Henry Keonig; the ceremony took place on the night of the institution, by special dispensation.

The following have served as Past Grands, named in the order of their service: Jacob Lyda, Fred Howell, William L. Langton, George Rishtine, William Woodside, John A. Arter, Henry Bimple, William Leffler, Wolf Dryfus, John J. James, Richard Fairchild, James McIntosh, Jacob Gigax, Zachariah Reed, John Mack, Charles Claspill, Joseph L. Dryfus, William D. Arter, Harvey Hubbell, Benjamin Fell, E. L.

Nosker, J. H. Coke, J. R. Moll, W. H. Toye, B. S. Dryfus, John A. Morrow, George R. Humphrey, J. S. Arter, Jacob Beiser, J. A. Miner, John H. Best, M. Calhoun, S. Frank, W. H. Mast, G. Suter, R. B. Brown, G. F. Hughes, Charles Gigax and Dudley Waller.

The average amount paid out for sick benefits, of late years, has been $250 per annum. The average amount of current expenses, including the above, and relief of widows and orphans, and burial of the dead, $800. The receipts from all sources, an average of $1,000. The general fund of the Lodge amounts to $3,545.98. The widows' and orphans' fund, $546.67, invested in good securities.

The officers are: Noble Grand, W. F. Amos; Vice Grand, Lewis H. Miller; Recording Secretary, W. F. Miller; Permanent Secretary, J. H. Coke; Treasurer, W. Dryfus.

The latter officer was first elected in 1866, and has been continued in office; comment is unnecessary.

Trustees—W. L. Langton; George Rishtine, R. B. Brown, B. S. Dryfus, John A. Morrow.

MOZART LODGE, No. 423.—At the session of the Grand Lodge, held in May, 1869, application was made by Brothers Fred. Geiger, O. A. Duvee, A. Shaum, Henry Koenig, C. Sunkle, Philip Muhl, Henry Roekel, Adam Young, Fred Kappes, E. Drescher, William Derringer, J. Baum, William Bick, and Henry Knoedler, for a charter for a Lodge, authorized to work in the German language. The petition was granted, and on the 25th of June, of the same year. Special Deputy Grand Master, Henry Lindenberg, of Columbus, assisted by P. G. Remlinger, of Woodlawn Lodge, instituted Mozart Lodge, No. 423, the petitioners appearing as charter members.

The instituting officer, with his assistants, then installed the following, being the first officers:

N. G., Ferdinand Hess; V. G., Adam Young; Secretary, O. A. Duvee; Treasurer, F. Kappes.

This Lodge started under the encouraging auspices of abundant material for good Odd Fellows, being found among our German citizens. And now, after eleven years' labor, with the vicissitudes attendant on the affairs of men, her active membership is eighty-four.

The ravages of death have been here, however, and from among those who kindled the fire upon this altar of love, Brothers Duvee and Young have passed—beyond the portals. But their genial natures, and zeal in the cause of the brotherhood, enshrine them in the memory of every true Odd Fellow, and inspire him to emulate their virtues.

Of the remainder of this pioneer band, some have become stalwarts in the cause. Among these, remaining with the Lodge are, Geiger, Schaum, Hess, Muhl, Kappes, Derringer, Sunkle, and Zinsmeister, to whose exertions the successful growth of Mozart (the first German Lodge in this section of the State) is due.

The substantial character of her work may be erhood, and particularly the Encampment. He ever exemplified the sublime principles taught by the fraternity; the practice of them rendered purer his spiritual life. He passed quietly away, June 18th, 1867, full of love and ripe in years. There are other bright lights, whose great moral influence still illumines our pathway, as we journey to meet them in the "Sweet bye and bye;" among these are, Thomas Durban, and Lewis Slyder, who were particularly zealous in the cause of brotherly love.

The present officers are as follows: W. H. Smallwood, Chief Patriarch; R. B. Brown, Senior Warden; S. Stockdale, Junior Warden; George D. Gibbons, High Priest; W. R. Hazlett, Scribe, and W. Dryfus, Treasurer.

The Past Chief Patriarchs are: W. R. Hazlett, George D. Gibbons, E. H. Church, Samuel D. McBride, G. W. Griffee, C. Simmons, W. H. Deffenbaugh, C. B. Gray, W. B. Hubbell, John Gerrick, J. J. Arter, E. L. Grigsby, Henry Granger, E. P. Moorehead, M. Richman, J. Bridwell, Zachariah Reed, Thomas Drake, D. M. Coultrap, F. M. Hollister, Thomas Crippen, J. S. Marcellus, Jacob Lyda, L. M. Sloan, G. W. Ebert, H. Shrimpton, J. A. Morrow, Frederick Dietrich, G. R. Bostwick, W. H. Minter, W. L. Langton, M. H. Fountain, I. V. Wing, David Stewart, J. R. Moll, W. S. Harlan, J. C. Taylor, John Mack, Charles Niemeyer, W. S. Bell, T. D. McCaddon, W. H. Mast, Louis F. Smith, and Frederick Ehman.

The present membership is one hundred and seventy-nine. The Encampment has expended $5,916.00, for the relief of members, and has safely invested $3,600.00, with a surplus fund in cash, on hand, of $475.10; making a grand total of $9,991.10.

The place of meeting is in "Odd Fellows' Hall," Lodge room. The present Most Worthy Grand Master, H. P. Gravatt, is succeeded in the office of Most Worthy Grand Master of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows of the State of Ohio, by W. R. Hazlett, who was elected in December last, and will be installed, May 12th, proximo. This is the first time that Southeastern Ohio, has been thus honored; and it is certainly a well-deserved compliment; one that the Odd Fellows of Zanesville, and the Muskingum Valley, feel particularly proud of, and a promotion that reflects credit on the fraternity throughout the State.

ODD FELLOWS' BENEFICIAL ASSOCIATION.

SECRETARY'S REPORT.

ZANESVILLE, O., April 29, 1881.

I present herewith the Twelfth Annual Report of this Association, and in doing so it gives me pleasure to inform you that the year just closing has been one of unprecedented prosperity, not only financially, but also in the increase of members, and in the small number of deaths we have had.

During the existence of this Association, the sum of $72,950.00 has been distributed among the heirs of its deceased members, at a total cost to the insured of $2,751.75.

This large amount has been collected, and expended, at a comparative small cost, and few have suffered even temporary inconvenience by the amount they have contributed.

It may be urged by some who have paid their assessments for a time and then forfeited their membership, that they have lost just that amount. That is a great error, for they were protected while paying, and no member has ever paid more than the actual cost of his insurance.

and the following officers elected: Mrs. H. G. O. Cary, President and Treasurer; Miss Kate Brown, Secretary.

The object of this Mission is "to promote the religious, moral, and temporal welfare of children; especially to teach them sewing, and the cutting and preparation of garments, in an economical manner."

A distinct aim of the school has been to awaken in the children self-respect, and a desire to help themselves. A solid basis for pure and honest lives has been laid in Scripture lessons, and verses memorized at each meeting. Improvement in sewing, in cleanliness, and orderly habits, has, in most cases, been very rapid.

The average yearly enrollment has been one hundred and forty; the attendance during the winter months has been from fifty to one hundred and twenty. Many of the pupils, as they have arrived at a suitable age, have secured good situations, and a marked improvement has taken place in the children's homes.

The school has completed eleven years of labor, with much profit, under the superintendence of Mrs. Cary, supported by the faithful teachers: Misses—H. Purcell Early,——Wilmot, Cora Hubbell, Bessie Guthrie, Carrie Beaumont, E. Thompson, Lucy Hazlett, Mrs. Chas. Abbott,——Stenger, Ellen Hazlett, Allen and B. F. Hersh.

Officers for 1880:

President and Treasurer—Mrs. H. G. O. Cary.

Vice President—Mrs. J. B. Allen.

Secretary—Miss Eva J. Thompson.

The Y. M. C. A., is the churches' mission to young men. It is steadily growing in numbers and increasing in strength. Its purpose is becoming better defined and better understood. Like other children, it has had to pass through the troubles and difficulties of infancy, and is to-day a great power in the land.

BUILDING ASSOCIATIONS.

MUSKINGUM BUILDING ASSOCIATION.—This Association was incorporated November 21st, 1872. The stock consisted of twenty-five hundred shares, at two hundred dollars each. The organization took place December 20th, 1872.

"The object of the Association is to raise funds, to be loaned among the members, or others, for buying and building homesteads, or improving the same, and for other purposes."

The members of the association must pay, for every share, twenty-five cents every week, on Saturday, as dues. The Constitution provides that each share-holder shall be entitled to a loan of two hundred dollars for each share held by him. These loans are made by a public sale of money on the last Saturday of each month, at the office of the association. The persons bidding the highest premium take precedence in receiving the loans, paying, monthly, six per cent. per annum. There are also fines for neglect to pay the weekly dues for more than four weeks.

The profits to the association arise by reason of the premium, bid for loans, interest on money loaned, fines and fees for transferring stock on the books of the association. The total of these items, after deducting the current expenses, is divided pro rata among all the stock-holders. Whenever the assets of the association are sufficient to pay such share-holder two hundred dollars for each share of stock he may own, this association shall be dissolved.

new, world, and also with their surroundings, which often had much to do with shaping their course, and, doubtless, kept many a genius in obscurity, and a mere mention of those celebrities would be trite and unwelcome. This sketch, however, is intended for the general reader, and so we indulge in a recapitulation concerning some who won their laurels in America. The first practicing artist of celebrity, in the United States, was John Watson, born in Scotland, in 1685; he commenced painting portraits in New Jersey, in 1715. Nathaniel Smybert, of Edinburgh, began in Boston, in 1728. Benjamin West was the first native American artist; born in Chester county, Pennsylvania, in 1708; painted his first portrait in Lancaster, Pennsylvania, in 1753. John Singleton Copley was born in Boston, in 1738; first painted in 1760; he was the father of Lord Lyndhurst, Lord Chancellor of Great Britain. Charles W. Peale, was born in Maryland, in 1741; Gilbert Charles Stuart, Rhode Island, 1754; John Trumbull, Connecticut, 1756; William Dunlap, New Jersey, 1766; E. G. Malbone, Rhode Island, 1777; and were among the artists to win distinction in the United States. Dunlap was the author of an able work on "Arts of Design."

The reader need not be told that the number of artists has greatly increased since their day, for during this century, the world has taken it for granted, that a home is not to be thought of with bare walls. In art life, as in every other sphere of man, it has come to pass, that fidelity has brought excellence, and excellence has increased the demand, which has also so reduced the expense that every home may have these luxuries, and in many instances, the work of their own hands. The refinement consequent on developing the talent for art is too evident to admit of argument, and we proceed to speak of its manifestations in Zanesville.

May 3, 1880, the work done by Miss Dunlap and her class in drawing and painting was announced for exposition. And while it is true that "home talent" is praised, as a matter of course, it is correct to say that the work exhibited was highly meritorious, and attracted special attention from home and foreign cities.

Miss Mary Stuart Dunlap is a graduate of Putman Seminary; studied painting under James Beard, of College Hill, and Mrs. Beers, at Cooper Institute. To her was reserved the opportunity to develop the talent of many ladies of Zanesville. Their success is certainly complimentary to her. The themes have been happily chosen, and well rendered. The landscape predominated, and gave evidence of the inspiration expressed by the poet, when he said:

"There is a pleasure in the pathless woods,
There is a rapture on the lonely shore,
There is society where none intrudes,
By the deep sea, and music in its roar;
I love not man the less, but nature more,
From these our interviews."

It has been customary for her class to study arts and artists, and it is probable that the subjects were pretty well mastered, for among the members of her class were:—Misses Cora Hubbell, Lida Black,——Hatton, S. E. Rollo, Mary Munson, Effie Munson, Lucretia Stultz, Laura Wiles, Mary Lynn, Mamie Atwell, Daisy Shryock, and Mrs. Canfield, Minnie Munson, (Dr.) Barton, Franklin Cooper and Mrs. Hirsh.

Among the specimens of work exhibited, was a landscape by Miss Laura Wiles; a panel with landscape, Miss Mary Munson; a fan, with blossoms and birds, Mrs. Dr. Barton; flowers on panel, Miss Hatton; a deer head in crayon, Mrs. Canfield; butters, decorated in birds and flowers, and an initial letter, Miss Rollo; palette, with odd design, Miss Atwell; palette, blackberries and flowers, Mrs. Hirsh; unique design on china plates, Japanese, Miss Munson; and many other fine specimens; the reception was a great success, and a just source of pride to lovers of art in Zanesville.

Among the artists in Zanesville, we find Adams, Lyons, Brewer, Howland, Barton and Craig. Mr. Barton was born in Zanesville, and in early life began to exhibit his talent with pencil, India ink, etc., and yet was never regularly instructed; he painted his first picture in 1842, and has since devoted his time and talent to oil painting. In the spring of 1844, he studied in the National Academy of Design, in New York, and after sixteen months, returned to his native city. In 1875, he visited Europe for the purpose of seeing the works of the great masters.

At the Exposition in December, 1880, in the Art Department, was exhibited "Yosemite Valley," by J. P. Barton; a view taken from the summit of Mariposa Trail, showing the whole of that wonderful Valley. On the left of the picture is seen El Capitan, three thousand five hundred feet high; on the right, Bridal Veil Falls; in the middle distance, Half Dome; in the middle foreground, at the base of Bridal Veil Falls, Mirror Lake, than which nothing grander has yet been seen; in the foreground, the peculiar and gigantic flora of California. By the same artist: "Assumption of the Blessed Virgin." The great painters have delighted in this theme. A high authority tells of more than five hundred different styles of Madonnas; this is a splendid copy after Murillo, purchased in Brussels by the late Mr. Aspinwall, for ten thousand dollars. There were also a number of portraits of well-known citizens, highly prized for their life-like character. Mr. Charles Craig had a "View on Bear River," "Sunrise on the Alleghanies," "Custar's last Charge," and "The Chariot Race;" the latter copied from the great painting by Alexander Wagner, representing the close of an exciting race, in the presence of the Emperor Domitian, in the circus, Maximus, at Rome, with all the wealth and beauty of their day. Mr. Craig needs no eulogy.

"Wetterhorn" (Peak of Tempests), by Frank Stark. This is a lofty peak of the Bernese Oberland, Switzerland, on the east side of the Grindenwald. From the path by which it is ascended, rises one vast precipice of Alpine limestone, seeming to threaten the traveler; the height is about thirteen thousand feet. Also, "Staubach" (Dust-Stream). This celebrated waterfall is a mile from the village of Lauterbrunn, in the Canton of Berne, Switzerland. It has a descent of nearly nine hundred feet, and, long before it reaches the bottom, it is blown into dust of silver spray; hence the name, from staub (dust), and bach (stream).

WATER COLORS.—Only a few of this class of pictures were shown at this Exposition, yet enough to afford a clear idea of their peculiarities. The most casual observer would notice that there is a sharpness of tone and purity of color which do not belong to oil paintings. This does not enhance the one or detract from the other, but is simply a characteristic. Charming landscape effects are produced in water colors, as was seen in the pictures executed by General Granger.

Some of the most impressive street scenes, church interiors, and character presentations, have been executed in water colors; and their adaptation to marine views may be easily comprehended by examining "The Fishermen" and "Breezy Day" (Swiss scene), scene from Rosa Bonheur, by A. C. Ross.

Morning Glories, by Miss Mary H. Buckingham.

Flowers, by Miss Julia W. Blandy.

Flowers, by Miss Lucretia Stultz.

CRAYONS.—Portrait of the late A. G. Brush and a child, by A. C. Fauley. Portrait of the late William C. Cassell, by T. C. Orndorff. Horses, by Miss Kate Potwin. "Psyche," also "Poor Relations," by Miss E. B. Blandy. "Stag at Bay," by Mrs. H. T. Canfield.

POTTERY.—A vase, Pilgrim jar (under-glaze), and specimen of plaque (over-glaze), by Miss M. H. Buckingham.

PLAQUE.—"Duchess of Gainsborough" and "Lady of the Eighteenth Century," the former "smear-glaze," the latter "over-glaze," but not fixed, by Miss M. S. Dunlap. Pairs of plates, cups, and saucers, by Miss M. H. Buckingham. Pair of Pilgrim vases, and plaque, by Mrs. C. E. Munson. Pair of plates, by Miss Jennie T. Ball. Pair of plates, by Miss L. H. Black. Pair of cups and saucers, by Miss L. Stultz. Pair of cups and saucers, by Miss C. M. Hubbell. Pair of plates, by Miss Mary Linn. Fruit dish (subject of painting, "The Unexpected Guest"), Miss Ella G. Ross. Pair of cups and saucers by Mrs. Dr. Scott.

In June, 1881, the art work of Miss Dunlap and her class was even more surprising in variety and excellence. These exhibitions demonstrate a high order of talent in the several artists, and afford ample testimony that home talent is not only abundant, but can find good opportunity and efficient leadership in Zanesville.

CHAPTER XXIV.

THE OPERA HOUSE.

Of the Opera, it will be remembered, that Octavio Rinuccini, of Florence, was the inventor of the production of musical representations of Comedy and Tragedy, and other dramatic pieces; and that Emelio de Cavelero, disputed this honor with him, A.D., 1590. Among the Venetians, opera was the chief glory of their carnival. About the year 1669, the Abbot Perin obtained a grant from Louis XIV., to set up an opera at Paris, where, in 1672, was acted Pomona. This play was probably in keeping with Ovid's story of Pomona and Vertumnus. "This Hamadryad lived in the time of Procas, King of Alba. She was devoted to the culture of gardens, to which she confined herself, shunning all society with the male deities. Vertumnus, among others, was enamored of her, and under various shapes, tried to win her hand; sometimes he came as a reaper, sometimes as a hay-maker, sometimes as a ploughman, or vine dresser; he was a soldier, and a fisherman, but to equally little purpose. At length, under the guise of an old woman, he won the confidence of the goddess, and, by enlarging on the evils of a single life, and the blessings of the wedded state, by launching out into the praises of Vertumnus, and relating a tale of the punishment of female cruelty to a lover, he sought to move the heart of Pomona; then, resuming his real form, he obtained the hand of the no longer reluctant nymph. [Ovid, Met. 14, 623, Seq. Knightley's Mythology, p. 539]." Sir William Davenant introduced a species of opera in London, in 1684. The first regularly performed opera was at York building, in 1692. The first in Drury Lane, was in 1705. The operas of Handel, were performed in 1735, and they became general in several of the theatres in a few years after. The first opera in Zanesville, that truly deserved the name, was given in this "Temple of Art," at the opening, January 20, 1880, by the Emma Abbott English Opera Company, and was a grand affair; patronized by the elite of this and neighboring cities. The eclat of this performance was heralded by the press generally, in the State and out of it. Messrs. Shultz & Hoge, the proprietors, have conferred a princely benefice on the community, in furnishing the Opera House, and the two elegant Halls, thereby rendering the city a great attraction for operatic and other musical and public performances, and exhibitions; adding, also, the block of elegant store rooms, with spacious rooms over them for offices. The building has a frontage of one hundred and twenty-five feet on Fifth street, extending from the southwest corner of Fountain alley southward, and a depth of seventy-five feet. The third story contains the "Conservatory of Music" Hall, which is forty by sixty feet, and "Gold Hall," which is sixty by eighty feet. These halls supply a want long felt. They are very handsomely decorated, and adapted for every public purpose, having dressing rooms,
