The Yavapai County Sheriff's Office announced the death of one of its deputies, Jesse Hubble. He passed away from natural causes at the age of 47 at his home Wednesday morning.

Deputy Hubble began work with the Sheriff's Office in July 2017. After graduating from the Training Academy, he was assigned to the northern area of the county in January 2018. He was also assigned as a field training officer in 2021 for newly hired deputies to the agency.

Hubble was a U.S. Navy veteran who received a Navy and Marine Corps Medal for heroism in 2007 for rescuing a navy pilot whose helicopter had crashed into the ocean. He was also a local youth sports volunteer and coach.

Deputy Hubble was well respected by his peers, outside law enforcement agencies, and the communities he served. He has been lauded by his superiors for his sound judgment in stressful situations, his calm and reserved demeanor, and his willingness to step up to assist in any capacity.

Last year, Deputy Hubble was given an award by the members of the American Legion Robert Fulton Post 57 of Ash Fork for his selfless commitment to the community.

He is survived by his wife, Mary Ann, and two children.

Tragedy has struck the Yavapai County Sheriff's Office as they announced the untimely passing of Deputy Jesse Hubble, who died at the age of 47 of natural causes at his home yesterday. Hubble, who joined the sheriff's office in July 2017 and took up his post in the northern area of the county in January 2018, leaves behind a legacy of service and dedication both in his professional and personal life. According to a release from the Yavapai County Sheriff's Office obtained by 12 News, Hubble's sound judgment and reserved demeanor were highlighted as hallmarks of his character.

Hubble's commendable life story includes his time as a U.S. Navy veteran, where he displayed extraordinary heroism in 2007 by rescuing a navy pilot from a helicopter crash in the ocean. For his bravery, he was awarded with the Navy and Marine Corps Medal for heroism. As per a report by azfamily.com, the local community also felt Hubble's impact through his volunteer work and dedication to coaching youth sports.

In honor of his community service, Hubble was recognized last year with an award from the members of the American Legion Robert Fulton Post 57 of Ash Fork. His commitment to the wellbeing and growth of his community is a testament to his generous spirit, matched only by his professional achievements. "Deputy Jesse Hubble served this Nation and in YCSO with humility, honor and a servant's heart," Yavapai County Sheriff David Rhodes said. "His sacrifices will never be forgotten." These words were part of a heartfelt statement from Sheriff Rhodes received by 12 News.

Hubble is survived by his wife, Mary Ann, and two children. In the wake of his death, the Yavapai County Sheriff's Office is organizing a fundraiser to support Hubble's family during this difficult period. Details on the fundraiser are to be announced.
